ENGLAND MAY BE DRAWN INTO WAR

British Public is Uneasy Over Relations With France and Russia

AUSTRIA AND RUSSIA'S CASE

It Requires Weeks to Mobilize Their Armies and They Are Compelled To Begin When Danger Signals Are Remote

London, Nov. 26.—The possibility and danger of a greater war than that between the Balkan States and Turkey absorbs public interest far more than the first bout of diplomacy between the belligerents outside of Constantinople.

The steps towards mobilization which Austria and Russia are taking, although but preliminary precautions, have made possible a vision of the vast consequences, which as far as Great Britain is concerned, are considered nothing less than appalling. Apparently the British public has no desire to sacrifice lives and money, paralyze commerce and risk the navy over the settlement of the status of the Balkan peninsular. Yet it is uneasy because ignorant of how far Great Britain's diplomatic engagements with France and Russia extend in the direction of an alliance and of how much likelihood there is that the government will be drawn in a conflict in which one or both its partners in the Entente may be engaged.

The Liberal press is unanimous in urging Great Britain to preserve neutrality. The majority of the Conservatives demand the same policy. The Times, declaring that none of the European peoples wants war, says:

"Yet that is whither the nations are blindly drifting."

It asks "Who then makes war?" and replies, "The answer is to be found in the chancelleries of Europe, among the men who too long have played with human lives as pawns in a game of chess, and who have become so enmeshed in formulas and the jargon of diplomacy that they have ceased to be conscious of the pregnant realities with which they trifle."

The Pall Mall Gazette almost alone speaks in a warlike voice. It declares:

"England ought to act firmly with France and Russia in refusing simply to be swept aside. If the conference discussed by the British government is refused, we are to face the alternative and stand by our friends."

The mobilization of the Austrian and Russian armies requires weeks for what Germany and France can accomplish in days. In Russia's case this is on account of the distances the troops must travel: in Austria's because the units of the army are on a peace footing, which is only one-third of their war strength. Therefore, consideration of safety compels them to begin when the danger signals are remote.

France and Germany are playing a peace-making role. Their efforts are directed apparently toward keeping the powers together in a compact to refrain from taking up piece meal the question which the war raises and defer their consideration until the conference.

The withdrawal of the Austrian warship at Constantinople to join the fleet is taken as an unfavorable sign and the imminent Servian occupation of Durazzo on the Adriatic sea, tends further to bring Austria and Servia toward the breaking point.

On the other hand, the safe arrival at Uskup of the Austrian consul Prochaska, who, it was feared, had been killed, should lessen the tension and the fact that the Austrian ambassador lunched today with the Russian Emperor would seem to indicate that the relations between these two powers still are cordial.

Plenipotentiaries Meet.

Constantinople, Nov. 26.—The special railway carriage built to convey ex-Sultan Abdul Hamid to Saloniki has been dispatched to Tchatalja to serve as a meeting place for the Turkish and Balkan plenipotentiaries. It is a large roomy car and will easily accommodate 12 persons around a central table.

The plenipotentiaries had another meeting today and the final meeting will take place tomorrow unless the unexpected happens and possibilities for an agreement manifest themselves.

CHANGE IN THE HOUSE.

Democrats From North Will Outnumber Southerners for First Time.

Washington, Nov. 26.—It has just been discovered by statisticians of the House that for the House that for the first time in the history of the lower branch of Congress the Democrats of the North will outnumber their party colleagues of the South.

Never before has Democracy drawn its main strength from north of the Mason and Dixon line, but as the investigators figure it the party will have in the coming House 153 Northerners a majority of 12. By reason of longer service, however, the Southerners will control virtually all of the important committees and thus practically will be able to direct the business of the House.

HAWTHORNE TRIAL GETS UNDER WAY

Government Outlines Case Against Exploiters of Mining Stock

MISUSE OF MAILS CHARGED

Prosecutor Says Force of Girls Were Trained to Imitate Hawthorne's Writing and Wrote "Personal" Letters.

New York, Nov. 26.—The literature signed by Julian Hawthorne, exploiting stock of mines in the Cobalt region, contained false statements, it was declared today by Assistant District Attorney Thompson, in outlining the case for the government at the trial of Hawthorne, Josiah Quicy, Dr. W. J. Morton and Albert Freeman, charged with fraudulent use of the mails. The government prosecutor's address was delivered after the completion of the jury this afternoon and was succeeded by the calling of witnesses.

Mr. Thompson said that a force of girls was trained to imitate the handwriting of Hawthorne and that they executed in longhand what purported to be personal letters from Hawthorne to his friends, urging them to invest in Cobalt claims, which the prosecutor described as barren. The girls signed other letters, he said, purporting to have been written to Hawthorne by a "friend named Brooks," who depicted in "glowing but false terms" conditions at Cobalt.

"There is a Brooks, but he never wrote to Hawthorne," said Mr. Thompson. "He never was in a mine but once in his life. He was a clerk in Freeman's employ."

Zuella Platt, manager of the circulating department in Freeman's office, testified that her assistant signed letters with the name of Julian Hawthorne after they had been multigraphed. Her testimony was corroborated by one of her assistants, Olga McKenzie.

William G. Burts, an incorporator of corporations, of Boston, who said he was employed by Josiah Quincy in 1908, testified that he got out the preliminary statement of the Temagami Cobalt Company and completed its organization, serving himself as president, secretary and treasurer until he turned the organization over to Quincy, he said. He had organized four or five other corporations for Quincy in the same way, he testified.

On August 1, 1908, Hawthorne and Woodford Brooks had been elected directors, according to minutes read, their election being made possible by the resignation of two clerks who had been served as directors. Burts said these men were "dummies." "They were business men paid $25 for each meeting," he testified.

CALL MONEY 12 PER CENT.

Various Factors Cause Sudden Advance in Day to Day Loans

New York, Nov. 26.—Another sudden advance in call money or day to day loans to 12 per cent, equalling yesterday's high rate, not attained since the early part of 1910, was responsible for further unsettlement in the stock market today.

Call money opened at 9 per cent, but quickly advanced to 12 per cent, and renewals were made at 11 per cent as compared with 6 per cent yesterday. After touching the high point, however, the rate declined until before the close money was offered at 3 per cent.

Several influences were responsible for the stringency, including the fact that large banking houses have already lost $7,000,000 to the sub-treasury since last Friday, which threatens a deficit in the excess reserve at the end of the week. There has also been a heavy shipment of cash by these institutions to the Pacific coast and to agricultural centers. One of the reasons advanced for the flurries of yesterday and today was the report that the Comptroller of the Currency probably would soon call on the National banks of this country to report their condition.

PROBE HIGH COAL PRICES.

Department of Justice Official Starts Investigation at Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 26.—Announcement was made today by D. Lawrence Groner, United States district attorney, that he has been instructed by the Department of Justice to investigate the causes for the high price of coal prevailing in this city. Mr. Groner said he has been ordered to ascertain if the conditions are purely local or due to a combination in restraint or other infraction of the inter-State commerce laws. Norfolk's Industrial Commission also has the coal question under advisement. While dealers here are charging $8.50 for anthracite, it was asserted today that $7.75 is the prevailing price at Hampton. The shortage is attributed to the railroads, which charge $2.15 a ton from Philadelphia and Baltimore, Norfolk's principal source of supply, while wawater freight rate is 65 cents.

TEXTILE STRIKERS HELD NOT GUILTY

Ettor, Giovannitti and Caruso are Freed from Charge of Murder

PRISONERS THANK THE JURY

Embrace and Kiss Each Other When Verdict Is Returned—Crowds of Mill Workers In Streets Cheer the Jury

Lawrence, Mass., Nov. 26.—Thousands of persons greeted with red lights and cheers the return to this city of Ettor, Giovanitti and Caruso, who were acquitted at Salem on the charge of murder in connection with the death of Anna Lopizzo, during the textile strike here last Winter. Women with babes in their arms joined in the demonstration. Cheering was continuous.

From every side street in the tenement district flocked hundreds of operative carrying red lights. The throng in Lexington Hall, headquarters of the Industrial Workers of the World, finally made conditions in the building so dangerous that Ettor was forced to ask them all to leave.

Then from an open window he addressed the great crowd, made up of mill workers of a score of nationalities.

Both Ettor and Giovannitti declared they owed their lives to the solidarity of the industrial classes.

"We shall see," said Ettor, "that those who belong to the Industrial Workers of the World shall be protected to the full limit of our power, energy and ability. You won your strike to get your wage advance, but you will never get enough until the mills belong to the working class. You have got to band together in a union to gain more bread."

"Not Guilty," the Verdict

Salem, Mass., Nov. 26.—"Not guilty" was the verdict of the jury in the case of Joseph J. Ettor, Arturo Giovannitti and Joseph Caruso for the murder of Anna Lopizzo, who was killed in a Lawrence textile strike riot last Winter.

When the three men had heard the words freeing them from the charge, they embraced and kissed each other.

Giovannitti then sprang to his feet.

"Gentlemen of the jury," he said, his face beaming with joy, "in the name of justice, truth and civilization, I thank you."

The court interpreter, Alfred Sacco, arose for Caruso, and said:

"Mr. Caruso desires me to say that he wants to thank you all and now that he is a free man he says that he was innocent of the crime."

Ettor, leader of the strike at Lawrence, and chief center of interest that has aroused worldwide attention, addressed the jury.

"May it please the court," he said, "I thank you not only for myself but in the names of my companions. I also feel impelled to thank the court for the fair manner in which this trial has been conducted. The thanks we offer are not only ours, but the thanks in the name of the working class."

The jury entered the court room at 8:20 o'clock. Immediately thereafter the prisoners, each wearing a red carnation, were brought to the cage in the center of the room. All were smiling. Judge Quinn ascended the bench at 8:42 and asked if the jury had agreed upon a verdict.

"We have," said the foreman, as he handed it to the court bailiff.

"Joseph Caruso, stand up," commanded Clerk George.

As Caruso obeyed the clerk called.

"Caruso face the jury." The jurymen looked at the prisoner. "Gentlemen of the jury, is Joseph Caruso guilty or not guilty?"

"Not guilty," was the unanimous reply.

Ettor and Giovannitti weer likewise commanded to rise and again the jurors chorused a verdict of "not guilty" for each defendant.

The jury, which for more than six weeks had listened to the evidence in this notable trial, was then excused from further service with the thanks of the court. The jurors were cheered by the crowds of mill workers in the streets.

The Lawrence strike leaders were then freed from the prisoners' cage and besieged by a crowd of men and women in the court room. For several minutes they were recipients of kisses and congratulations. The defendants and their attorneys had a jubilation after court adjournment and a few minutes later, followed by a cheering throng of mill workers, they marched through the streets from the Court House to the local office of the Wool Workers of the World, where they remained for some time.

PRINCESS MARIE DEAD.

Countess of Flanders, King's Mother, Died Yesterday.

Brussels, Belgium, Nov. 26.—The death occurred this morning of King Albert's mother, the Countess of Flanders, Princess Marie, of Belgium. She had been suffering for some days from pneumonia. She was in her 68th year.

When a man does talk sense, at least half the people don't recognize it.

TAFT'S EYE IS NOT ON G. O. P. TICKET

Will Help to Rejuvenate the Party But Will Not Be a Candidate

PLANS FOR REORGANIZATION

Gathering of Republican Leaders Is Proposed to Bring Various Factions Together—May Establish Headquarters

Washington, Nov. 26.—President Taft has quietly informed friends that no matter how active his participation in a re-organization of the Republican party may be, he is not to be regarded, or publicly referred to in political speeches by Republicans as a possible candidate of the party in 1916.

The President has made it plain that he does not wish to be considered as in any way having an eye on the first place on the Republican ticket four years from now. He intends to do all in his power to help rejuvenate the party and probably will make many political speeches before March 4th, and after he re-enters private life, but according to close friends he is not in the fight as a man seeking a re-nomination. These facts have been developed here in the last few days in connection with discussions of proposed gathering of Republican leaders during the Winter, to formulate plans for bringing Republican factions together.

President Taft and Mr. Hilles are being urged to take part in the movement to establish active "militant" headquarters for the party to open at once and to lead a general party re-organization movement in the next four years.

Republican committeemen who have been in Washington recently have offered various suggestions for the reopening of party activity. The majority of them favor a general publicity and educational campaign to strengthen public support of Republican principles and to place the party in a position to take advantage of any mistakes the Democratic administration may make.

FITZGERALD TRIAL

More Financial Transactions Described by Government Witnesses.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Additional financial transactions alleged to have been made by the defendant were described by government witnesses today in the trial of George Fitzgerald, charged with the embezzlement of $173,000 while employed in the United States sub-treasury at Chicago. A sale of Chicago City Railway bonds for $2,080, March 4th, 1910, figured in the testimony. Two employes of the company which sold the bonds failed to identify the purchaser as Fitzgerald.

William C. Pratt, cashier of the sub-treasury in 1902 and 1903, testified that on August 20th, 1908, Fitzgerald had loaned him $500. A loan of $1,000 made by Fitzgerald to the witness in November of 1907, was also mentioned.

Frederick M. Mercer, assistant cashier of the Drovers National Bank, was questioned regarding a note of $1,200 which was negotiated at the bank on January 22nd, 1910, payable to Fitzgerald. The witness said the bank had received 23 shares of preferred and 11 1-2 shares of common stock in the Illinois Car & Manufacturing Company as security.

OUTLINES

The four gunmen found guilty of the murder of Herman Rosenthal were yesterday sentenced to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing during the week of January 6th.

Contractors and heads of non-union construction firms testified at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial yesterday that their plants were destroyed when they refused to unionize their "jobs."

The fight to elect a presiding officer of the Senate during the coming session of Congress promises to be a lively one.

Democratic members of the House Banking and Currency Committee held an informal conference yesterday and decided to attempt no currency reform legislation at the coming session.

President Taft has let it be known that he will be prominent in the movement to rejuvenate the Republican party, but will not be a candidate under any circumstances in 1916.

The popular vote for President in the 1912 election shows that Wilson polled a total of 6,156,748 votes; Roosevelt 3,928,140; and Taft 3,376,422.

Ettor, Giovannitti and Caruso, leaders in the textile strike at Lawrence, Mass., were yesterday acquitted of the charge of murder in connection with the killing of Anna Lopizzo.

England is the latest factor to be considered in the Balkan embroglio, the British people fearing that diplomatic relations with France and Russia might possibly cause them to be drawn into the war.

Popular Vote for President, 1912

New York, Nov. 26.—The popular vote for President in the elections of 1912, shows that Wilson polled throughout the country a total of 6,156,748 votes Roosevelt, 3,928,140, and Taft, 3,376,422.

The Socialist vote for Debs amounted to 673,783, with the Socialist count still unfinished in seven States.

In 1908 Bryan's popular vote was 6,393,182 and that of Taft 7,637,676. The figures in the following table by States are divided between official and unofficial returns, as indicated. No count is at present available where the spaces are left blank.

NON-UNION JOBS THREATENED

Explosions Followed Refusal to Unionize.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 26.—As tending to show the implication of labor union officials in plots, the government introduced at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today testimony that explosions on non-union iron work followed the refusal of contractors to unionize their jobs after personal visits by some of the defendants. Before two charges of dynamite exploded on a bridge in St. Louis on August 1, 1908, John T. Garret, president of a construction firm, was visited by John H. Barry, of the local Iron Workers' Union, according to Garret's testimony today.

"Barry wanted me to unionize the job," said Garret. "He said, 'You'll find it a great deal cheaper, for you know what will happen'. I told him I suspected he was going to dynamite the job and had been careful. It was blown up later."

Questioned by Chester Crumm, counsel for Barry, Garret said the union official referring to dynamiting declared he "did not do that kind of business."

Wallace Marshall testified that in putting up a job at French Lick, Ind., he had been visited by Fred Sherman, union business agent. Sherman told me I had better unionize the job," said Marshall, "but I lost my temper and told him I would have nothing to do with the murderous dynamiting Iron Workers. An explosion occurred in March, 1911."

F. J. McCain said his firm suffered three explosions on jobs at Buffalo, N. Y., in 1909, and one in Erie, Pa., in 1911, after he had been visited by John T. Butler, vice president of the International Association of Bridge & Structural Iron Workers. "Butler told us we would be sorry when we refused to deal with the Union," said McCain.

Relative to the government's charges that the 45 defendants aided in the illegal transportation of explosives, many trainmen testified about trains on which Ortie E. McManigal and the McNamaras traveled. One porter told of luggage carried by James B. McNamara when the latter went from Chicago to Oakland, Ca., in June, 1909. It was on that trip that McNamara, after visiting Seattle and San Francisco, blew up the Los Angeles Times building. J. B. Robinson, a porter, told of carrying McManigal's luggage on the train to Los Angeles in December, 1910.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

Seventy-Sixth Annual Session Convenes in Hay Street Methodist Church Today—Rev. John C. Wooten Preaches.

(By Mamie Bays.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 26.—The 76th annual session of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will convene in May Street Methodist church, this city, tomorrow morning. Many of the members of the conference arrived today and many others will get here tomorrow. Rev. John C. Wooten, pastor of Grace church, Wilmington, preached in Hay Street church this evening.

The territory included in this conference is divided into nine districts and in these districts there is a total of 190 pastoral charges. This conference has not been held in Fayetteville since 1901, and only three times previous to that year—in 1866, 1872 and 1887. During the time that has passed since the conference held its sessions in Fayetteville, Methodism has experienced growth in membership and financial strength and the congregation of Hay Street church has erected a handsome new house of worship, modern in every detail. Rev. L. E. Thompson is closing now a pastorate of four years at this church. Only 15 other members of the conference will have completed four years on their present pastorates at this session, making it necessary for them to be sent to other charges on account of the "time limit" of the church. No presiding elder of the Conference has been on his present district four years. Because only 16 members of the conference fall under the four-year limit of the church does not mean that only 16 changes will occur in the appointments for next year. No preacher in the itinerary of the church is appointed to a pastoral charge for longer than a year and he cannot succeed himself for more than three years after his first appointment. It occurs not infrequently that the necessity for the removal of one pastor as the result of the time limit or for other causes necessitates the removal of a dozen or even a score of other members of the conference.

The presiding officer for the conference during this session is Bishop Collins Denny, of Richmond, who was elected to the episcopacy during the general conference , of the M. E. Church, South, in Asheville in 1910. He received the largest number of votes any man in the church has received when elected to that office. This will be the first time Bishop Denny has presided over this conference and his presidency is anticipated with interest. He has held the Western North Carolina Conference, for the first time also, this year, that conference having adjourned in High

U. S. SENATE H... OPEN WITH SCRA...

Little Hope of Selecting Presiding Officer at Coming Session

NO CURRENCY REFORM LIKELY

Informal Conference of Democratic Committee Decides No Legislation Will be Attempted at the Present Time.

Washington, Nov. 26.—With the beginning of the session of Congress less than a week away the Senate finds itself only temporarily provided with a presiding officer, and without any definite prospect of being able to agree upon one.

Senator Bristow, of Kansas, who was one of Mr. Gallinger's opponents from the time that he was nominated during the last session by the Republican caucus, has let it be known that the New Hampshire Senator is just as objectionable to him now as he was last year, and if a few other Progressives hold out they can defeat the election, just as they did last session. The Progressives are quite as much opposed to Senator Bacon, the Democratic nominee.

Democrats and Republicans alike say there will be no great embarrassment in proceeding, as they can manage as they have in the past, by dividing the honor between Bacon and Gallinger. The President pro tempore draws the salary of the Vice President in case of death of the latter and under this plan the distribution of the additional $4,500 per year would involve some complications in bookkeeping.

No Currency Reform.

Washington, Nov. 26.—No currency reform legislation will be attempted at the coming session of Congress, it was practically decided today at an informal conference of the Democratic members of the sub-committee of the House Banking and Currency Committee, headed by Representative Glass, of Virginia.

"The committee probably will be unable to report anything like finished legislation to the House at this session," said Mr. Glass tonight.

No definite steps towards drawing a bill have been taken by the members of the committee and no currency scheme has been evolved to fill the place of the Aldrich Currency plan rejected by the committee following the specific declaration of the Democratic National platform against the Aldrich plan.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING ENDS.

Woman's Suffrage Convention Adopts Important Resolutions.

Philadelphia, Nov. 26.—What is declared by officers and delegates to be one of the most successful conventions ever held by the National Woman's Suffrage Association, came to an end today after the adoption of resolutions on several important subjects. The resolutions demand an equal standard of morality for man and woman, commend the government for its efforts to end the commercialized vice and favor arbitration among nations "to the end that wars might be prevented."

There was only one session of the convention today, which was held principally to revise the constitution of the organization. A change in the manner of voting so that delegates may cast their ballots individually instead of by States, was the only important one made.

The place for the next convention will be selected by the executive board, which will meet in New York tomorrow. About the time the convention adjourned finally, four mass meetings under the auspices of the association were held in Independence Square. Speakers from four stands addressed the crowds.

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 26.—Information received today from Port Huron stating that the unofficial majority against the suffrage amendment in St. Clair county was nearly 1,600, caused the most confident champions of suffrage in Michigan to admit that defeat was almost certain.

A number of charges of alleged irregularities in canvassing returns have been made. An opinion by the attorney general's department was today submitted to the prosecuting attorney of Saginaw county, in which it was declared that the department knew of no provision of Michigan law providing for a recount of votes cast on a constitutional amendment.

PROGRESS ON PANAMA CANAL

President Taft Interested In Motion Pictures of the Work

Washington, Nov. 26.—President Taft was deeply interested in the first production of nine rolls of moving picture films showing the progress of work on the Panama canal, which he has visited several times on official trips of inspection. The production yesterday will be repeated today under the direction of the American Red Cross and the proceeds are to be devoted to the Balkan war fund.

The President remained throughout the performance, and when Read Admiral Colby M. Chester paid a glowing tribute to Col. G. W. Goethals, chief engineer of the work, Mr. Taft led in the applause.

"Miss Nobody From Starland."

In "Miss Nobody From Starland," one of the most successful of the many Mort H. Singer musical productions, and in which Olive Vail will be seen at the Academy Tuesday evening, December 3rd, the clever story tells of a young man, son of a millionaire, and erstwhile clerk in a London drug store. He is haunted by the thought that by his negligence in filling a prescription with poison instead of with peppermint he has been the innocent cause of a man's death. His supposed murder victim is none other than the father of a fascinating chorus girl, with whom he falls in love while on his way across the Atlantic on board the Lusitania. The object of his affections, instead of mourning the loss of her father, is engaged with her brother in the pleasant pastime of smuggling diamonds. Detectives on board the ship, in pursuit of the smugglers, suspect the fleeing drug clerk, who thinks he is wanted for murder. Seeking an "angel" to back her in a musical comedy, in which she is to star, the chorus girl ingeniously flirts with the aged millionaire and the detective, and each is led to believe that the other man is her father. From the deck of the Lusitania the entire company is next seen on the stage of the Princess Theatre at a dress rehearsal, remarkable for its interesting revelations of stage procedure and its screaming comedy. The final scene takes place at a prominent cafe, where a brilliant cabaret entertainment is a novel feature. Among the many song hits are "Hello Little Sweetheart," "My Pretty Moon," "That Dainty, Develish Rhapsody," "I Gave My Heart Away Just for a Rose," "I'll Be Your Honey When It's Moonlight." Miss Vail will be supported by a strong cast of principals and a large beauty chorus. Mort H. Singer has provided an entirely new scenic and costume production this season.

At the Bijou.

Two more big and really wonderful features, either of which would be sufficient to stamp the programme as one of the greatest, will mark today's swell bill at the popular Bijou. One will be the noted and favorite actor, Maurice Costello, in a splendid film success, and the other will be another one of those well known and lovable "Mary" films.

Mr. Costello will appear as the star in "Lord Browning and Cinderella." He will portray the role of "Lord Browning" and it is quite the cleverest and most artistic thing he has ever done. Lord Browning gets caught in a storm and has to seek shelter at an humble fisherman's hut. To learn the disposition of three daughters he disguises himself as a fisherman. The mother and daughters, one of whom is a stepdaughter, do not know that the fisherman is really Lord Browning. All save the modern Cinderella, treat him with contempt. It is then he learns their true natures, and falls in love with Cinderella. Judge of the dismay of the stepmother and daughters upon seeing the end of their well laid plans go awry.

"A Letter to the Princess" is the fifth story of "What Happened to Mary" and it is a romantic tale, and a stirrer.

The Bijou's costly new orchestral electric piano is now on duty, and it's winning laurels. It is a superb musical success, and should be heard. An entire change of programme will be presented today, and the renditions are as artistically clever as if presented by a full orchestra.

At the Grand Theatre.

Featuring a great Biograph, a Civil War story, the Grand will today offer an exceptionally strong bill in moving pictures to say nothing of the song by Mr. Chick, the music by the complete orchestra, all realistic effects for the pictures and the always delightfully comfortable auditorium and general environment of the amusement place.

For today Mr. Chick will sing a very beautiful ballad, written by the late Herbert Ingraham, the greatest writer of his day, the subject being "Good-Bye Rose." The music is said to be very pretty indeed and the sentiment expressed in the song sweet and pathetic. The war picture is "The Informer", and it is a thr...

tion of Southern life and Southern character during the great War Between the States. Some of the scenes are suggestive of the story. "The Parting at the Trysting Place", "The False Brother," "He Turns Informer," "I'll Fight 'Em", "The Attack," "Among the Comrades", and "The Empty Scabbard" are all vividly real and sensational. The other feature picture for today is the "Romance of a Rickshaw", the story of Mabel, the beautiful daughter of General Lewis. There is a marriage in prospect and rival lovers, all of which combine in an interesting and very pleasing way to make a most interesting story of modern life.

In addition to these two there is still a third film and nowhere under the sun will more for the money be afforded in the amusement line than right here at the Grand Theatre.

TAFT'S THANKSGIVING

Will Stand Quiet Day With Turkey And Mince Pie

Washington, Nov. 26.—President Taft's Thanksgiving will be spent quietly in Washington with only a huge turkey, an enormous mince pie, a wedding and two church services to break its monotony. The turkey, from the farm of Horace Vose, near Westerly, R. I., is expected in the White House kitchens tomorrow. The big mince pie is coming from Miss Delia Torrey, of Milburn, Mass., the President's favorite aunt, whose skill in the construction of pies is famous throughout the country.

The big feature of the Thanksgiving day in Washington is the Pan-American service in St. Patrick's Church, an affair which annually draws scores of government officials, diplomats from foreign countries and many of the capital's leaders of society.

This year the President and most of the members of his cabinet, many Senators and Congressmen who are in town and scores of officials will attend the services held before noon.

Dinner with some members of the President's official family will be held after Wednesday, although several cabinet ministers will fill other engagements.

The President will rest for the day. At night he will fill his own pew at All Souls Unitarian Church. At 2 o'clock the President will attend the wedding of John B. Ladd, of Boston, and Miss Alice Boutell, daughter of the American minister to Switzerland. Mrs. Taft is in Washington and Robert and Charles, the Taft boys, are expected to arrive tomorrow night from school. Miss Helen will not return from her trip in Panama in time to join in the family celebration.

ADVANCE GUARD ARRIVES.

Congressmen Take Up Their Abode at Capital—Meetings Prevented.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Dozens of Congressmen, the advance guard of the influx that will continue from now until noon next Monday when the last session of the 63rd Congress begins, arrived in Washington today. The House side of the capital took on an air of business-like activity.

Despite the many arrivals, several scheduled conferences and meetings were prevented by the failure of participants to get to the capital. Chairman Clayton, of the Judiciary Committee, has called a meeting for Wednesday of the House managers, who will prosecute the impeachment charges against Judge Robert W. Archbold, of the Commerce Court. The House managers are prepared to go on with the case immediately upon the convening of the session and it is expected the trial will be concluded by the Christmas holiday adjournment.

Representative Sparkman, of Florida, chairman of the House Rivers and Harbors Committee, which has charge of the rivers and harbor appropriation bill, reached his office today. He called a meeting of his committee for Wednesday, when the estimates for the big so-called "pork barrel" will be discussed. The committee has before it estimates from the army engineers for some $40,000,000 of river and harbor improvemet and it is believed that the bill will total about $50,000,000 as reported to the House.

BANKER BREAKS DOWN

Dr. Wm. T. Kirby Creates Dramatic Scene Before Judge Landis

Chicago, Nov. 25. — A dramatic scene was created by Dr. William T. Kirby before Federal Judge Landis, when the founder of the private bank bearing his name, which is the subject of an inquiry, was questioned by the court. The banker-physician broke down and wept. Interrogation by the court as to counsel for Dr. Kirby in an order commanding him to turn over $10,000 led up to the scene.

Attorney Edward B. Healey, for the receiver, served a copy of the order on Dr. Kirby to show cause Wednesday morning why he should turn over the money. Three lawyers who have heretofore represented his interests in the case said they did not represent Dr. Kirby in the pending matter.

"Who is your lawyer here," Kirby was asked by Judge Landis.

"I don't know," replied the banker, with bowed head. He made the same reply to similar questions and finally stretching out both arms sobbed out:

"My God, my God, I don't know anything about what my wife did or what anybody did."

This was in reply to a question as to whether his wife had not arranged for an attorney.

He was led from the court room by bailiffs at the close of the session.

FOGEL CASE OPENED

National League Magnates Meet—Philadelphia President Resigns

New York, Nov. 26.—Hearing of the case of Horace Fogel, of Philadelphia, charged in seven counts with making false and slanderous affairs of the National League, was opened late this afternoon and was still in progress at midnight. At that hour there was little prospect of an early conclusion of the case, probably not until some time tomorrow.

The National Leage took up the Fogel case after having written into its records today two important events, the death of President John T. Brush, of the New York club, and announcement by Fogel of his formal resignation on November 23rd, of the presidency of the Philadelphia club, to which Alfred B. Wiler was elected as his successor.

Important baseball rumor was also current that Christie Mathewson, the star pitcher of the New York Giants, was negotiating for the purchase of the Philadelphia club, but a denial of this was made tonight.

After adopting appropriate resolutions upon the death of President Brush the league began the Fogel inquiry which was open only to the representatives of the league and newspaper men. Reporters figured as the principal witnesses after Fogel had appeared with a formal denial of the truth of the charges made against him. Facing all his fellow club presidents, Mr. Fogel vehemently asserted that statements which he was charged with making had been made by a Philadelphia clergyman during a conversation which was overheard as he and Fogel were leaving the Philadelphia ball park last September. Fogel declared that newspaper men who were nearby at the time erroneously thought it was he who made assertions that the league race was being "fixed" for the New York team to win.

It was stated that only for the publicity that might follow, the clergyman in question was not identified or asked to testify in Mr. Fogel's behalf.

Fogel was asked if he believed that the umpires, the presidents, or any one or anything connected with the National League was crooked.

"No" was his emphatic answer, but he admitted he had expressed the belief that the Philadelphia team had been given a "rotten deal" by the umpires in the latter part of the season, especially in the three double headers against New York in September.

ASHEVILLE WITHDRAWS

Released From Appalachian League to Take Anderson's Franchise

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 26.—A majority of the clubs composing the Appalachian League having voted to let Asheville withdraw from the league in favor of Middlesboro, Ky. The latter will take Asheville's franchise and its players. Today's vote is a reversal of the action taken by the clubs of the Appalachian League three weeks ago at a special meeting held at Knoxville, when all refused to allow Asheville to surrender its franchise.

The way is now clear for Asheville to enter the Carolina League, taking the place of Anderson, S. C., if the latter retires. At the last meeting of the Carolina directors it was generally understood that Asheville would be taken in, provided that it could secure a release from the Appalachian League.

WOMAN CHAUFFEUR SUICIDE?

Champion Ice Skater of Canada Found Shot to Death.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Miss Julia V. Sullivan, one of Chicago's few licensed women chauffeurs, was found shot to death in her apartments early today. Although the police were told that she committed suicide, detectives were assigned to investigate. She was 42 years of age.

Miss Sullivan is said to have held the woman's ice skating championship of Canada and the archery championship of the United States. She was employed as a chauffeur by a taxicab company until three weeks ago when she left her position.

The landlady, who was the only person in the apartments when the shooting occurred, told the police Miss Sullivan committed suicide.

HORACE FORGEL RESIGNS

Withdraws Suddenly From National League Without Explanation

New York, Nov. 26.—Horace Fogel, president of the Philadelphia National League baseball club, tendered his resignation to the National League magnates in session here this afternoon. He took this action suddenly and without explanation, before the assembled magnates had had time to consider the charges against him of having made statements reflecting on the integrity of National League umpires.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Survivors of Sinking Lake Steamer Tell Thrilling Stories.

Sault Ste. Marie, Nov. 26.—Survivors who reached here today told thrilling stories of their last moments on the steamer Southshort and of their rescue by life savers just before the boat plunged to the bottom of Lake Superior near Grand Marais Sunday.

"I have sailed the lakes for years, and never before encountered such an experience as this," said Arthur King, fireman on the steamer, today.

"It was not long after the boat struck the heavy seas that her seams opened and the water poured through them. Two men and their wives were on board as passengers. The women were remarkably cool, but they did not know the real danger. We, down below, knew we were right in the graveyard of the lakes.

"The windows were soon smashed and the stern torn away. As the boat began to fill the officers got below. I was standing in water up to my waist and deck hands passed coal as they could scarpe it together. As soon as they would get a pile of it together, water from the seams would wash it away and finally we threw into the fire boxes a number of pads of hard coal we were carrying as freight.

"All night we tossed around the lake in that condition. Just before noon (Sunday) the life savers on shore, six miles away, saw our white flag and came to the rescue. We all jumped into the life savers' boat and made for the shore. The wheelsman lashed her wheel and headed her straight for shore. She started in as prettily as anything you ever saw and then suddenly dropped out of sight."

32 PRISONERS RELEASED.

Granted Pardons and Paroles by Governor Blease.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 26.—Thirty-two prisoners, several of whom were serving life terms for murder, were released from the State penitentiary and the county jails in South Carolina today by order of Governor Cole L. Blease. Three prisoners were granted full pardons and the remainder were paroled.

One of the prisoners granted a full pardon was James Stobo Young, of Laurens, S. C., formerly secretary of the Seminole Security Company there. He was serving a sentence of one year for breach of trust.

New York, Nov. 26.—Four additional indictments were returned today by the New Orleans grand jury after an investigation of alleged frauds in the recent election on constitutional amendments. This makes a total of 24 indictments returned to date. Seventy-three additional ballot boxes, a total of 111, have been ordered examined. The men indicted today are Louis Gabriel, Antoine G. Heine and Louis Meszel, commissioners, and Pascal Imbrigilo, clerk.

WILSON IMPROVED.

President-elect and Family Dines With Bermuda Governor.

Hamilton, Nov. 26.—The President-elect and Mrs. Wilson and their two daughters were the guests at dinner tonight of Sir George M. Bullock, the Governor. This was the first big social function since the arrival of the distinguished Americans and was attended by many officials and army and navy officers. The Governor's home was decorated with British and American flags, while the tables were loaded with flowers.

Toasts were given to King George, President Taft and the President-elect.

The health of President-elect Wilson showed improvement today.

Thanksgiving Day will find Mr. Wilson and his family deprived of a turkey, as there is none available on the island except birds kept on cold storage.

GOMPERS INDISPOSED

Unable to Attend Meeting of Building Trades Department

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was prevented by illness from participating in the opening of the annual convention of the Building Trades Department of the federation this morning, but is not seriously indisposed. The strain of the two weeks' meeting of the major body and a cold contracted Saturday kept him in his room at a hotel yesterday and today, but it was said tonight that he likely will be out tomorrow.

The Building Trades Department is made up of 1,944 unions with a membership of 456,247. Today's sessions were devoted to reports of officers and the executive council and the appointment of committees by President James A. Short.

EUROPE LEADS IN FIGHTING CONSUMPTION.

Great Foreign Remedy Now Being Used in America.

Specialists in Europe have been fighting Consumption during the last few years with great success by using a Swiss preparation called Sirolin.

This is of great interest to sufferers in this country, because Sirolin has been imported lately in great quantities, and is sure to become just as valuable in the treating of the disease here as it is abroad.

Sirolin, though very powerful in attacking the tubercle bacilli, contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. It seems to agree with the most delicate stomach, and creates an appetite that would do credit to a healthy man, thus making it a great body builder.

Additional information about Sirolin can be obtained in this country by addressing the Sirolin Co., 228 West Broadway, New York City. All leading druggists are recommending and distributing Sirolin with considerable success.

Every Home Needs This Fine Remedy

A Mild, Reliable Laxative Tonic Is Something No Family Should Be Without

No well-regulated home should be without a laxative for there is scarcely a day in a family of several persons that someone doesn't complain of a headache, of sleeplessness, or show the first signs of a cold.

A laxative then becomes a necessity or what was a trifling congestion at the beginning may run into a serious cold or fever. No harsh remedy is needed, but simply a mild laxative tonic that will make the liver active and stir up the bowels. People who have tried a great many things, and are themselves heads of families who have seen the little ills run to big ones, will tell you that there is nothing better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can obtain at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, the latter being the family size.

Among the great believers in Syrup Pepsin for constipation in old or young, and as a general household emergency remedy, are Mr. J. M. Arrington, Marshall, N. C., and Mrs. Nancy Ainsworth, Brookhaven, Miss., and they always have a bottle of it in the home. It is scientifically compounded and its purity is vouched for. Mothers give it to tiny babies, and grown people, taking a little larger amount, find it equally effective. It is mild and gentle, pleasant-tasting and free from griping.

It does not hide behind the name of a popular fruit or vegetable, and is absolutely free from any prohibited ingredient. Families who once use Syrup Pepsin forever after avoid cathartics, salts, pills and other harsh medicines, for these only do temporary good, are nauseous and a shock to any delicate system. Such things should never be given to children.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 414 Washington street, Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

NEWS AT TRINITY.

Inter-Society Debate. — Basketball Games—Classical Club.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Durham, N. C., Nov. 26.—The Hesperian and Columbian Literary societies held the preliminary for the annual inter-society debate Saturday night in their respective halls. Heretofore this debate has been one of the annual Spring events, but this year, owing to the fact that Trinity debates Swarthmore during the Spring, it has been decided to have the inter-society debate before the Christmas holidays. The date has not been definitely set as yet, but it will take place about the 20th of December.

In the Hesperian Society, eight speakers competed for places on the debate. Those who won places were H. B. Hill, Rich Square, N. C.; James Cannon, Jr., Waynesville, and B. W. Ruark, Southport, all three being members of the junior class. For alternate in case one of the first three men should be unable to speak in the regular debate for any reason, D. R. Kirkman, of High Point, was selected.

The Columbians selected for the contest were A. W. Byrd, Mt. Olive, of the senior class; B. F. Dalton, Gilkey, N. C.; W. F. Starnes, Monroe, and J. R. Davis, Shelby, of the junior class, the last mentioned speaker being alternate.

The debate in both societies was of a high order, although the question was announced only two weeks ago, and necessarily not as great amount of work was done on the question as might have been. The question, which reads as follows, will serve also as the question to be debated with Swarthmore, though probably a different wording will be used: "Granted, the desirability of judicial reforms: Resolved, That the doctrine of recall of judicial decisions offers a better plan than the recall of judges, constitutionally waived in both cases." The Hesperians are to urge the claims of the affirmative and the Columbians will defend the negative.

For the past five successive years, the Hesperians have come out victors in this annual debate. This year the indications are that the two teams are more evenly matched than in the past few years, and the outcome is awaited with considerable interest by the entire college community.

The Sophomore team defeated the Seniors at basketball Friday night in a very one-sided game, the final score being 34 to 14 in favor of the Sophomores.

With Siler and White forwards, Cherry, center, and Brinn and any one of the half dozen other competing guards, the outlook for Trinity's 'varsity team is bright.

At a meeting of the Classical Club Thursday night, a paper on the Gorgon Medusa was presented by R. B. Murray. The aspect of the Medusa myth as presented by Mr. Murray was the one taken by Prof. A. L. Frothingham, of Princeton, which has been discussed extensively of late by Roscher, Fortwangler and other prominent scholars of archaeology. This interpretation, briefly, is that Medusa, instead of being merely a horrid bogey of ancient times, was in reality the supreme nature goddess of pre-Hellenic times.

The Fortnightly Club met Friday night and was thoroughly entertained by a paper presented by Mr. N. J. White on contemporaneous poets and poetry. Mr. White himself is a poet of no small ability and he has made special study of the contemporaneous poetry. He made his observations in such a thoroughly clear and attractive manner that the club was delighted with his paper. After an informal discussion of the subject of the evening, the club meeting resolved into an informal smoker, which lasted until 11 o'clock.

Rev. Frank Hall Wright, the eminent Indian evangelist, late of New York City, addressed the Y. M. C. A. in their hall Sunday afternoon. His address was thoroughly enjoyed by all the young men present. Music for the occasion by the Glee Club Quartette. Rev. Mr. Wright also sang a beautiful solo, which was appreciated by the audience.

AT ELON COLLEGE

Methodist Protestant Conference Entertained There—Education

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elon College, N. C., Nov. 26.—The Methodist Protestant Conference came up from Burlington on the train this morning and visited the college until 9:45 P. M. The conference assembled immediately in the Elon College auditorium and heard brief words of greeting from President Harper, Dr. J. O. Atkinson, pastor of the College Church; Dr. T. C. Amick, secretary of the college faculty, and Rev. J. W. Wellons, of the board of trustees of the college, to which President C. A. Cecil, of the conference, responded in fitting and felicitous phrases.

The conference then adjourned to the college dining hall in the West Dormitory, where a luncheon was served, the grace being said by the distinguished editor of the Methodist Protestant of Baltimore, Dr. T. F. Tagg.

Then following an inspection of the college plant and the Christian Orphanage located on the adjoining hill until 1:30 P. M., when conference again assembled in the auditorium and for thirty minutes heard a recital by the children of the Christian Orphanage.

The education report was then read by Rev. A. O. Lindley, Concord, N. C., and provoked much excellent discussion. Western Maryland College, of Maryland, and Adrian College, of Michigan; Dental High School, Oak Ridge Institute, Yadkin College and Elon College were highly commended. A proposition from the industrial school at Star, N. C., was referred to a special committee with power to act and the same committee was authorized to investigate any other points that may arise during the year.

Dr. Beck and Dr. Forlines made telling addresses for Christian education. There is a strong determination to establish a college for the church in this State.

The college enjoyed exceedingly this visit of this distinguished body of Christian workers and was uplifted with the inspiration which came in its wake.

FOR THURSDAY'S GAME

A. & M. Getting Ready for Big Thanksgiving Meet—Practice

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 26.—Following a week of hard practice including about half an hour scrimmage each afternoon, the A. & M. football team had a hard scrimmage practice with the scrubs Saturday afternoon. This week will be spent in light signal practice to keep the team in condition to go into the game on Thursday against Washington & Lee. In the scrimmage Saturday the Varsity lined up against the scrubs and had little trouble in making a touchdown whenever they cared to do so. McHenry, the 190-pound fullback, hits the line hard, and always made at least five yards through the line whenever he was given the ball. Jeffrey, at halfback, gave a good exhibition of broken field running, sometimes going through the whole scrub team for large gains. Hargrove is also in good condition and hits the line hard. Trust, a new man whom the coach is developing to a halfback, is showing up very well, being very fast. Anthony, fullback, who has been laid up for the past month with a broken shoulder, was out again Friday going through signal practice, and will very probably be in part of the game Thursday. He has been one of the mainstays of the A. & M. backfield for the past two years, being a hard player and a good ground gainer, and his presence in the game will greatly strengthen the backfield. Spencer and Hudson, the two other backfield men, are also in good condition and will probably get a chance to show what they can do against W. & L. The Red and White have had their real hard luck in the quarterback position, Rice, the regular quarterback being out on account of a sprained ankle, and Capt. Cool, one of the strongest men on the team, and who was shifted from half to quarter when Rice was injured, is in the hospital with an injured knee, which he has been having trouble with during the whole season, and will not be in the Thanksgiving game. Champion is now working at quarter, and although he is a new man, is showing up especially well at that position, having played in part of the game with the Navy, after Cool was hurt. Champion was a star in the backfield of the Raleigh High School team last year, which won the State High School championship. Flyler is developing into a first-class center, and from the way he is now working, should land that position on the All-State team. The presence of Floyd in the line has also materially strengthened the forwards, and he is now working in old-time form. With the team full of the fighting spirit, the Techs are going into the game Thursday with the determination to keep the Blue and White team from Lexington from having the walkover, which has been conceded them by the football public.

AGED CARRIER DROWNED.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Canetuck, N. C., Nov. 26.—Mr. David T. Bradshaw, the mail carrier from Canetuck to Armour, N. C., was drowned in the Cape Fear river at the county line landing, 36 miles from Wilmington, where the line crosses the river that divides Bladen, Columbus and Pender counties. He left Canetuck postoffice about 8:45 A. M. and went to the landing where he habitually crossed the river in carrying the mail from here to Armour. Not having put in his appearance, a colored boy and two men who had gone there to work found him sitting or standing in the river up to his eyes, his feet stuck in the soft mud. It seems that he had baled the water out of his flat his mule and buggy standing close by ready to be taken on the flat. His overcoat, mail sack, etc., were in the buggy unmolested. There was no evidence of violence anywhere. When he left the office he seemed as well as usual and was found before 11 o'clock of the day he was drowned. Mr. Bradshaw was nearly 77 years old and leaves a second wife and seven small children who have the sympathy of all in their sorrow. He also has a grown son and daughter by the first marriage. Mr. Bradshaw was a native of Sampson county and an old Confederate soldier.

SAY ROBIN IS INSANE.

Alienists Testify for Hyde Against Principal State's Witness.

New York, Nov. 26—Testimony that Joseph G. Robin, chief witness for the State in the trial of the former city chamberlain, Charles H. Hyde, has been insane for several years, was given by alienists at Hyde's trial today. To discredit Robin's testimony that Hyde obtained a loan of $130,000 from Robin's Northern Bank for the tottering Carnegie Trust Company in 1910, by juggling with city deposits, of which he had control, counsel for Hyde called several alienists who testified that Robin was mentally afflicted at the time of his alleged negotiations with Hyde and still is insane.

The attack on Robin came after the testimony of a number of prominent citizens, including judges, business men and bankers as to the good character of the accused Hyde.

The witness, Dr. William Mabon, of the State Hospital for the Insane on Wards Island, replied: "He was a paranoiac."

Dr. Mabon said Martin Luther and John Wesley also were insane to some extent but their form or paranoia accomplished some good.

Dr. Carlos MacDonald said Robin had paranoia in 1910 and has it now.

Dr. M. C. Gregory, of Bellevue hospital. Dr. Smith E. Jelliffe, Dr. M. Schlapp and Dr. H. Valentine Wildman, all of whom qualified on the stand as expert alienists, gave similar testimony.

Dr. Jelliffe declared that Robin believed he was the controlling financial power of the world.

MRS. MELHORN ENTHUSIASTIC

Over the Good Results Obtained From the Use of Cardui, the Woman's Tonic.

Johns, Ala.—In a letter from this town, Mrs. M. Melhorn says: "I was in very bad health last year, and did not recover as quickly as I should.

I ached all over, and would often have a headache for a whole week at the time. I would almost go crazy. I was so weak, and felt so tired, I could hardly walk across the room.

My doctor said I would never get well without an operation, but I decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic.

I have only taken four bottles, and I feel like a new woman already.

I recommend Cardui for young and old, and would not give it for any other kind of medicine."

Headache is one of the most common symptoms of womanly trouble. Backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, weak, tired feeling, are others.

If you have any of the above symptoms, don't neglect them—do as Mrs. Melhorn advises—take Cardui, the woman's tonic. She knows what it will do, for it made her well, after she had tried other treatments in vain.

Cardui is a purely vegetable, gentle-acting woman's tonic, that has been successfully used for more than 50 years.

It will help you just as it has helped thousands of other women in this time.

Give Cardui a trial.

DAVID'S.

Thanksgiving

WE HAVE good cause to be thankful this year. Thankful for the amount of business we have done. Thankful for the good will our merchandise has brought.

For, because we have always given the best possible value for the money, ever increasing numbers have come to deal with us, and having once bought, have come back again, because they have found that DAVID'S Merchandise is thoroughly reliable.

Take our Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes, for example. They give better value, dollar for dollar, than any others—which is why we sell them. Each year they have satisfied and pleased more men by their high quality, attractive style and thorough honesty of making.

Whether their price be $18 or $35, never were garments of such high quality offered elsewhere in North Carolina for the same money.

Come in and see us today—we may help you to spend a happier Thanksgiving by helping you to get the most for your money.

Suits, $15 to $35. Overcoats, $15 to $25.

HATS—Best Hats made at $2. Stetson Hats, $3.50.

HABERDASHERY—Your money spent at DAVID'S store brings its fullest return in Gloves, Underwear, Neckwear, Shirts, Waistcoats, and all other Men's Furnishings.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Wednesday, November 27, 1912.

Some men are blind to each other's faults, but they can see through each others' tricks.

A highbrow delivers an address, a statesman delivers a speech, and a demagogue delivers a harrangue.

South Carolina politicians have looked up Bermuda on the map, but they insist on calling it Bermudy.

Turkey has ceased to gobble in Europe, and a great many Turkeys will cease to gobble in America tomorrow.

President Taft will no doubt be thankful that he won't have to turn over the White House to the Bull Moose.

The members of the press are quietly wondering if President Wilson would favorably consider the idea of pressing them into service.

Mr. Carnegie says he owes $8,000,000. If he owed it to us we would not dun him for a cent. We could borrow money on the strength of it.

We can be thankful for those things which have come our way, and if things haven't gone right we can be thankful that the worst hasn't happened to us yet.

The man who managed the thread trust is dead, but he taught others how to carry on the work and keep the trust alive. Man's work, good or bad, lives a long time after he has gone.

After the 4th of March, President Taft has our consent to state whether or not Roosevelt, the anti-boss propagandist, got mad with the President because he was not permitted to boss the administration.

The Progressives are figuring on running a candidate for mayor of New York. Why should "Christian soldiers, marching as to war", abandon their stand at Armageddon and make a dash for Sodom?

In New Orleans the election commissioners are charged with falsifying the returns to defeat a measure enabling women to hold certain offices. A man who would cheat a woman ought not to have the right to vote.

The experts in the government hospital for the insane say single men are more liable to go insane than married men. If married men could get young again they would not mind taking chances on getting nutty.

North Carolina is making progress because North Carolinians are developing the varied resources of the State. Also because her resources have attracted newcomers who see great opportunities in every portion of the State.

A man is gifted with more intelligence than a horse, but a man can be persuaded to take a drink when he doesn't need it, while a horse knows when he has enough till the next time. That is the difference between intelligence and horse sense.

Tom Watson, of Georgia, has been arrested on a Federal warrant for making use of objectionable language in his magazine. His offense is a violation of the postal laws, but the probability is that Tom is more offensive than his magazine stuph.

Outside of the personality of the Bull Moose, the people took very little stock in the Progressive party itself. Out of its 249 nominees for Congress, 277 of them went down in defeat. If there had been no Roosevelt, there would have been no Progressive party. Already we hear that the Progressive party is to have two wings. This indicates that it is liable to wing its flight to the scrap heap.

ADVERTISING THE NATION'S GARDEN SPOT.

So much interest has been aroused by the exhibit car, which the Atlantic Coast Line sent North last Fall, that the Agricultural and Immigration Department of that great Southern railway system has decided to run another one next Fall. In the early Autumn the Coast Line loaded a car with splendid exhibits of the agricultural products of this portion of the South and sent it into the States of Ohio, Illinois and Michigan. The exhibit was featured at four great agricultural fairs in those States and it was visited by thousands of people. Astonishment was expressed by the visitors at the great variety of products on display, but in reality the display only embraced some of the immense variety of agricultural products peculiar to the South Atlantic States.

A complete exhibit would astonish our own people, but owing to the immense variety of our money and food crops, it is difficult to confine such an exhibit to one car. However, the Coast Line is starting out early with a view to collecting a much more elaborate display than it carried to the Middle West in September and October. This decision of the progressive Coast Line management will be a source of great satisfaction to our people, as it will put them on notice to prepare to co-operate with the railroad management in making such a display as will do credit to the agricultural and horticultural adaptabilities of this favored spot of the Nation.

The Star hopes the people of eastern North Carolina will bear this in mind and prepare during the coming crop year to furnish the Coast Line such an exhibit as will eclipse the really fine one which it sent out the past Fall. The management is anxious to have its next exhibit to represent, as far as possible, the astonishing variety of our crops and the great versatility of our soil, and if it cannot get exhibits any other way, the railroad is willing to pay for them. However, that should not be expected of the railroad, for our people should share with the railroad people its earnest and effective plans to advertise this section. We make this statement on our own responsibility, and we wish to say that this advertising policy of the Coast Line furnishes us such a magnificent opportunity for publicity that we should eagerly avail ourselves of it.

The Star wants to throw out the suggestion that the chambers of commerce, boards of trade, farmers' unions, and community organizations should prepare at once to see that the Coast Line carries on its next car a complete exhibit of the great variety of products to which this section is so peculiarly and wonderfully adapted. This will give some system to our purpose in aiding the railroad people. At any rate, we ought to vie with them in getting products for display on their next invasion of the North for the purpose of encouraging homeseekers to come South.

It has not been decided yet whether the exhibit car will be sent East or West, but the matter will be carefully considered. The main thing now is to start in time, so the best efforts of our truckers and farmers can be put forth in the production of fine specimens for exhibition. No better opportunity can be afforded to communities to get a kind of publicity that carries an object lesson directly to homeseekers.

This is a new and eminently practical policy of the Coast Line, and the exhibit car which was sent into three great States this Fall was the beginning of this progressive idea of advertising the Coast Line territory. It has been demonstrated that the Coast Line, owing to the immense variety of our products and the great versatility of our soils, can get up better exhibits than any other railroad in America. This variety and versatility covers an immense territory that has no equal on the face of the globe. Not only can it collect an exhibit of infinite and wonderful variety, but one of unexcelled attractiveness and value. Nevertheless, the railroad management is dependent upon the people along its numerous lines, and it is for our growers to interest themselves during the coming season in providing an exhibit that will proclaim the splendid advantages of this country for those who wish to make homes in a delightful climate and in a region of marvelous productivity.

We know we have the greatest country in Christendom, but we must let others know it. The Atlantic Coast Line is giving us a magnificent opportunity to do that in the best possible manner.

OUR CLIMATE ASSET

The glories of the climate of this charming South Atlantic country is a huge asset if we will but comprehend it fully and realize upon it as a pre-eminent factor in the development of this section. Wilmington ought to be entertaining thousands of Northern tourists this Fall and Winter, for we do not know of a country which comes so completely being ideal for visitors in the early Fall, in mid-Winter, and in the Spring.

Early in the Winter the climate in Florida is too enervating for tourist travel, but later they reach the Land of Flowers when the season is more suitable. However, this section right around Wilmington offers them a subtropical climate which in the early Winter equals that of the Florida mid-Winter season. Eastern North Carolina offers the tourist the opportunity to get to Florida by easy stages, and also when the Florida season is waning the delightful Spring of this North Carolina climate offers them an easy stage on the way back North. This fact is more and more impressed upon us, and the time is coming for us to wake up and avail ourselves of a climatic asset that should be turned in to a fortune. Others will sooner or later come and do it and give us an object lesson of our neglected opportunities.

Recently Philadelphia sent a large number of her manufacturers, business men and capitalists throughout a large portion of North Carolina and we deeply regret that Wilmington was not included in their itinerary. They have gone home with a powerful impression of this State's resources and progress and they were no more marvelously impressed by anything than the glorious climatic conditions which they observed. After a quick run from a wintry climate they emerged into the "Land of the Long Leaf Pine" where the dazzling Autumn tints were still to be seen and many products were still growing in the open during the near approach of December. A genial sun shed a golden effulgence that was both delightful and invigorating in its effect. Of course, the visitors will never forget it and they will talka bout it many a day, just as they are talking about the marvelous Carolina progress which came under their observation.

Instead of our going after the Philadelphians, they came after us, and that is where they've got one on us. However, they came, they saw and they were delighted. Pity they had not been invited to Wilmington so they could have seen North Carolina at its best. By all means they should have seen the country which in April ships a million dollars worth of strawberries for the delectation of the people of Philadelphia and other Northern cities.

The live and progressive city of Charlotte was not slow in appreciating her opportunities by reason of the visit of the Philadelphians. The Queen City put herself on display as the industrial hub of the South, the center of electrical energy, and all that. Not only that, Charlotte paraded its glorious climate, and according to the Charlotte Observer, they were presented "a climatic pamphlet." They were impressed with the ideality of Charlotte as a Winter home city, and Charlotte boosters got next to the visitors, for the Observer says "the Greater Charlotte Club has received hundreds of inquiries about the weather of this city," which is to say Charlotte. Charlotte knew the Philadelphians were coming, so she was prepared to show them the wonders of the Queen City and hand them a "climatic pamphlet" made up from the record "by permission of Willis L. Moore, chief of the United States Weather Bureau." Of course, that showed that the data is authentic beyond a doubt, so it does not give anybody a chance to attribute anything to the exhuberance of a lusty Charlotte booster.

This reminds us that here in Wilmington we have a paradisical climate, with the morning dew in these latter November days kissing the blushing rose. These November days are simply delicious and the beauty of it is that they will continue all Winter, with now and then a reminder that a light overcoat might be carried to make it look like Winter. What an ideal locality is this for a Winter resort. Winter homes and sporting grounds. It is midway between New York and Florida, and it has a midway climate that has a charm and delight nowhereelse experienced on this magnificent continent. This climate makes Wilmington an ideal stopover point for tourists going to and returning from Florida by either rail or water. We could attract thousands of visitors but for the lack of tourist hotels to entertain them. Many of them go to Florida in their yachts, and if two or three hotels were built here this locality could count on stopovers as well as regular Winter visitors. Hunting and fishing are good all Winter, and sportsmen can be entertained with duck shooting, wild goose hunting, deer hunting, bear hunting and shooting of all kinds. This country is right on the Atlantic Coast Line within 18 hours' run of New York and with telegraph and telephone connections with the great cities of the country. There is nothing the matter with this section. What is the matter with us?

The tax on the people to pay interest and dividends on the watered stocks of the trusts constitutes one of the causes of the high cost of living. Every unnecessary and unjustifiable drain on what men earn is a burden. High prices which come about from natural causes could be met easier if so much of what a man earns were not paid out in tribute for special interests and for which there is no value received by those who are the victims of privilege.

CURRENT COMMENT.

North Carolina could easily become famous as a live stock producing State, and it would be to our own discredit and serious financial loss if she does not do it.—Greensboro News.

Major Chas. M. Stedman leaves tomorrow for Washington to be in readiness for the meeting of Congress today week. He went through his canvass, speaking in every county in the district two or more times, and grew fat over the work, so that he is in the pink of condition, ready for hard work.—Greensboro Record, Nov. 26.

The Atlantic Coast Line has just increased its capital stock six million dollars. This is an interesting fact to Charlotte folks when the announcement comes on the heels of various and sundry interesting rumors regarding the extension of the Coast Line into Charlotte, either from Wadesboro or from Raleigh, which it is expected will soon have the road through the building of the short gap between that city and Spring Hope.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Wilmington is still climbing up toward the head of Southern cotton export cities. It exported 383,500 bales of the crop of 1910-1911. This places Wilmington second to Savannah, which city ranks next to New Orleans and New Orleans next to Galveston. Wilmington exports more cotton than Mobile, Baltimore, Charleston or Norfolk. At its present rate of increase, the port of Wilmington may be expected to catch up with Savannah in a few years, and may eventually outstrip that port, for Wilmington has demonstrated the fact that it is fast becoming one of the greatest of South Atlantic ports.—Charlotte Observer.

There is no matter of more vital interest to large sections of North Carolina than drainage. Fifty years ago the map makers put down "the Great American Desert" midway between the Mississippi river and Pacific ocean. Present day maps do not show any desert. Where has it gone? Irrigation has converted desert lands into fertile farms. Map makers put large areas of land in North Carolina down as "the big pocosin" swamps. These pocosins or swamps are generally rich land covered in part by water. Drainage will do for these sections of North Carolina what irrigation did for "the Great American Desert." They will disappear and growing crops will make us a rich people. The Drainage Convention to be held in Raleigh in the hall of the House of Representatives today and tomorrow is an important gathering. Some progress has been made in drainage and the discussions will accelerate this important work.—Raleigh News and Observer, November 26th.

DOCTORS ENDORSE
Newbro's Herpicide

When a doctor endorses a preparation it means more than an ordinary testimonial. His opinion is always that of the professional man devoted to the welfare of the people.

Dr. J. J. Boyd, Covington, Tenn. says: "I feel it my duty to write this for the benefit of those suffering from dandruff. In the average case a few applications of Newbro's Herpicide will remove all dandruff. It is advisable to continue its use for several weeks."

The words of J. B. Thompson, M D., No. 2 Burrough Place, Cor. Hollis St., Boston, Mass., are not less enthusiastic: "I can only speak in praise of Newbro's Herpicide. It is all that is claimed and perhaps more. Herpicide not only cleanses the scalp but brightens the hair, gives it life and makes it soft."

Dr. T. A. Moore, Duncan, Ariz. writes of his experience: "My scalp was in places covered by patches of dry, scaly material and the itching was incessant. Since using Herpicide all these evils have disappeared and my hair is soft, smooth and growing. Hair has grown on spots before but thinly covered."

Newbro's Herpicide is the original remedy to kill the dandruff germ and stop falling hair. The terrible itching which goes with dandruff is allayed almost at once.

Herpicide is for sale at Drug Store and one dollar size bottles are guaranteed. Applications may be obtained at the leading barber shops. Be sure you get genuine Herpicide. Send 10c in postage for sample and book to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

WHO WILL BE MADE CHAIRMAN?

County Commissioners Will Reorganize Monday With New Members. Informal Conference Held Yesterday.

Who will be chairman of the Board of County Commissioners as it will be constituted after Monday of next week? is a question that is being asked very frequently this week by those who take an interest in county affairs. So far as can be learned there is no avowed candidate for the chairmanship of the board, but on the other hand each member rather prefers that another member be selected for this important position.

One or two members have not only stated that they would not be a candidate, but that they would not accept the position if tendered to them. Commissioners John VanB. Metts and J. T. Kerr are the two members of the present board who will hold over and the new members are Messrs. M. S. Willard, W. E. Yopp and W. A. McGirt. Commissioners Metts, Yopp and Willard have been spoken of for chairman. Mr. Yopp is quoted as saying emphatically that he would not have the place if elected to it. Mr. Willard and Col. Metts are not candidates, but it is believed that either might be induced to serve as chairman. Col. Metts told some friends the other day that he did not want the position and that it would be a sacrifice of his private business to accept. One of the group asked him pointedly what he would do if the board should unanimously choose him over his protest. He replied that under those circumstances there would seemingly be nothing left for him to do but to take the place, although it would seriously interfere with his business at times. He said that he felt that if the position should come to him unsought and by a unanimous vote that he would be shirking his duty if he failed to respond. However, he stated that he was in no sense seeking the position and would much prefer the selection of some other member. Mr. Willard is understood to feel about the same over the matter. Friends of both gentlemen are urging them to accept the position if tendered to either of them.

The last meeting of the retiring board will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It is an adjourned called session and is held for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the county so far as the present board is concerned. The incoming board will meet Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock to perfect organization and transact the usual business of the first Mohday in the fiscal year.

The Board of Commissioners as it will be constituted after next Monday met in the office of Mr. M. S. Willard, No. 12 Princess street, yesterday afternoon for an informal conference. Matters in general pertaining to the county affairs were discussed, the two present members of the board giving the three incoming members the benefit of any information they could relative to the county affairs with particular reference to the several offices that are to be filled, such as superintendent of roads, superintendent of the county farm, clerk of the auditing committee, etc. It is said that there will not be a great many changes, if any, but nothing definite was decided upon at the conference yesterday. However, there is one person in the employ of the county who is as certain of re-election as the boards meets next Monday and he is Mr. W. A. Williams, the very capable clerk of the auditing committee. This is a position that is rather difficult to fill and members of the incoming board who have been heard to express themselves say that the county is fortunate in being able to secure the services of Mr. Williams in this capacity.

The matter of chairmanship may have received some attention at the conference, but it is said that nothing definite was decided upon. Another conference of the board will be held Monday morning. It is expected that at this meeting the chairman will be decided upon and the programme for the organization meeting will be outlined.

MEETINGS IN GREENSBORO.

Gathering of Well Known Educators There This Week.

Mr. John J. Blair, superintendent of the city graded schools, will leave this evening for Greensboro, where he will attend the annual meeting of the City Superintendents' Association of North Carolina, which convenes tomorrow and will continue in session through Saturday. Mr. Blair has been assigned a place on the programme and will speak on the progress that has been made in the State in the matter of the professional training of teachers in recent years.

The annual meeting of the County Superintendents of the State began a two days' convention in Greensboro yesterday. Prof. Washington Catlett, superintendent of this county, is attending the meeting.

The grammar school teachers of the State will also be in session in Greensboro this week and a number of teachers in the local schools will leave today to attend.

PORT PARAGRAPHS.

Swedish Steamer Emanuel Arrives With Cargo—Str. Auchenblae.

The Swedish steamer Emanuel arrived yesterday from Bremen with cargo of sulphate ammonia and kainit for the Acme Manufacturing Co. The cargo will be discharged at the Seaboard Air Line terminals and the vessel comes to Messrs. Heide & Co.

The British steamer Auchenblae, Capt. Nair, having completed the discharge of cargo of fertilizer materials, cleared light yesterday for Fernandina, Fla. Messrs. Heide & Co. are agents for the vessel.

Service at Immanuel

At Immanuel Presbyterian church the Thanksgiving Day service will be held at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. The sermon will be preached by the pastor, Rev. J. S. Crowley. The offering will be for the Barium Springs Orphanage, where there are 190 children who are being cared for. There will be good singing and a special invitation is extended to the public to attend the service.

THANKSGIVING FOOTBALL.

High School Eleven Getting in Shape for Game With Raleigh Here.

After a light signal practice this afternoon the Wilmington High School eleven will have completed its final preliminary work for the big football game with Raleigh on Thanksgiving Day. The boys have been working steadily since the Washington game and are in even better shape than when they last played. The Raleigh Highs are confident of victory but the local management hopes to persuade them differently. The Wilmington line-up is familiar to all followers of the sport, being composed of the same husky gridiron warriors who have worked so well all season. On right-end Bill Monroe will appear as of yore and this means trouble for the enemy. Capt. Burnett will be right on the job at tackle and anyone who has ever had the pleasure of being the opposing tackle remembers him. "Happy" Hicks at right guard has all the qualities that are found in a stone wall. "Rat" Herring at left guard is not one of the "droned" speciess by any means. "Dock" Thames will do his duty and Silverman at left end will give ground begrudgingly and usually succeeds in driving a bargain at the opponents' loss. In the back field appear four of the finest. "Ditty" Hall at quarter will general the team to the queen's taste. Hashagen at left half is "lightning personified". "Bob" Burnett at full back is known to every team in the State. "Annie" Williams is there always and will give a good account of himself. "Rock" Hall is the understudy for the backfield. Wilmington should win with such a team and the boys deserve the support of the citizens and indications are that they will get it. Many tickets have been disposed of and a record breaking crowd is expected to see the biggest game in the State on that day.

LEAVE FOR CONFERENCE.

Wilmington Will be Well Represented at Great Gathering This Week.

Wilmington Methodist pastors and Presiding Elder N. H. D. Wilson, with a number of prominent laymen, have gone, or will leave this morning, for Fayetteville, where they will attend the annual sessions of the North Carolina Conference, which will be in progress through Sunday. This has been a great year for the denomination in the State and the conference promises to be a most gratifying one. Among those in Fayetteville or who will leave this morning are Rev. John C. Wooten, the pastor, and Mr. W. A. McGirt, of Grace Church; Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street church; Rev. E. C. Sell, of Trinity, and Rev. W. L. Rexford, of Bladen Street church; ex-Mayor Wm. E. Springer, chairman of the joint finance committee of the conference, and Mr. W. B. Cooper, chairman of the conference Sunday School board. Others will also likely attend during the sessions and it is stated that it is almost certain that Wilmington will be selected for the 1913 session of the conference.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Several Cases of Minor Importance Disposed of Yesterday.

In the Recorder's court yesterday morning the case against Clyde Huggins, colored, charged with violating the prohibition law, was nol prossed and similar cases against Peter Hamilton and Charles Brown, also colored, were continued until today. Charles and Rebecca Starkey, colored, were taxed the costs for an affray. Messrs. R. R. Stone and J. M. Stevenson were each taxed the costs for violating the driving ordinance by driving on the wrong side of the street. Judgment was suspended in the case against Mr. J. W. Plummer, charged with obstructing the sidewalk, upon payment of the costs. Mr. Plummer violated the law by displaying fruits, etc., on the sidewalk in front of his store, taking the position that he had as much right to occupy a small portion of the sidewalk as certain firms and corporations have to occpy the public docks. However, he decided not to fight the matter out in the courts and took in his display.

DEATH OF MRS. A. J. HANBY.

Passed Away in This City Yesterday Morning—The Funeral.

Mrs. A. J. Hanby, of Myrtle Court, on the Sound, died yesterday at noon at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. J. R. Hanby, No. 405 Dock street, whither she was recently brought for treatment. She had been in declining health for the past two months and although the advice of specialists in New York were sought, there was no time when her condition was considered favorable.

Mrs. Hanby was 46 years old and is survived by her husband. The funeral will be held at 11 o'clock this morning, conducted from the residence of Mr. J. R. Hanby by Rev. Dr. W. H. Milton, assisted by Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster. The interment will be in Oakdale cemetery. The pall-bearers will be Messrs. N. M. McEachern, A. M. Sholar, J. O. Reilly and L. W. Moore.

Real Estate Transfers

Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: Harrison Johnson to Geo. H. Hutaff, for $1[illegible] and other considerations, lot 14 in block "F," "Love Grove." Southeastern Realty Co., to T. J. Gause and wife and Jas. F. Gause, Jr., for $1[illegible] and other considerations, lot on east side of 15th street, 5[illegible] feet north of Chesnut, 5[illegible] by 150 feet in size. Joseph W. Yates, trustee, to Mary E. Holland, for 210 and other considerations, lot 4 of "The Bronx." F. J. Gooding to Ida H. Gooding, for $10 and other considerations, lot on west side of Fourth street, 132 feet north of Red Cross street, 66x165 feet in size. Minerva Wright, et al., to John Wright, for 210 and other considerations, lot on east side of Tenth street, 66 feet north of Wright, 33x165 feet in size.

Flagged Train With Shirt.

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at R. R. Bellamy.

MR. C. T. CASHWELL DEAD

Messrs. C. C. and F. A Cashwell, of This City, Bereaved

Many friends in this city as well as in Robeson county of Messrs C. C. and F. A. Cashwell, prominent young men of Wilmington, will deeply sympathize with them in the death of their father, Mr. C. T. Cashwell, which occurred rather suddenly at his home at Fairmont yesterday morning at [illegible] o'clock. A telegram was received here in the forenoon conveying to the young men the sad intelligence and they left in the afternoon for Fairmont to attend the funeral. Mr. Cashwell was 66 years old and was a well-known and prominent citizen of Fairmont. He is survived by his wife and five children, these being Mrs. Alice T. Covington, of Rockingham; Mr. Willie Cashwell, of Whiteville; Mr. N. K. Cashwell, of Fairmont; Messrs. C. C. and F. A. Cashwell, of Wilmington.

GOES WITH M'MILLAN

Expert Automobile Man Now With Well-known Garage

The many friends of Mr. Leonard Bruce Douglas, one of the most expert automobile mechanics who has ever been to Wilmington, will be glad to know that he has decided to return to the city from the fastness of Greenville Sound, where he has been hibernating for a few months, and will be hereafter with the W. D. MacMillan, Jr., agency, at his garage and repair shops on North Second street. Mr. Douglas has been conducting a shop for his own amusement at the Sound for several months but now returns to active harness and will be found in the future at the MacMillan garage, where a corps of competent men are always to be found to take care of the most trifling or the most difficult repair job.

MR. CHAS. E. GOODWIN DEAD.

Well Known Citizen Passed Away Yesterday—Funeral Today.

Mr. Chas. E. Goodwin, for the past 10 or 15 years a well known citizen of this county, passed away at his home, No. 1012 South Sixth street, at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness of six weeks. Death was due to a complication of diseases. Mr. Goodwin was a native of Wake county, removing to New Hanover some 10 or 15 years ago. Until two or three months ago he resided with his family on his farm in East Wilmington, when they removed to the city.

Mr. Goodwin was 48 years old and was a member of the First Baptist church. He is survived by his wife and two small children. He also leaves a brother, Mr. Leon H. Goodwin, of Wake county, and three half-sisters. Many friends in this city will tenderly sympathize with the bereaved.

The funeral will be held from the residence at 3 o'clock this afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster, pastor of the First Baptist church. Interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

Thanksgiving at St. James'

The Thanksgiving Day service at St. James' Episcopal church will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by the rector, Rev. Dr. W. H. Milton. The usual offering will be made. Members of the congregation and others who desire to make donations are asked to have them at the church before 10 o'clock. The offering will be for the Thompson Orphanage at Charlotte.

Died From His Injuries.

Alex. Oldham, colored, son of Daniel Oldham, a stevedore, fell through the hatch of one of the tramp steamers in port Monday afternoon and died the same day as the result of his injuries. The funeral was conducted from St. Stephen's A. M. E. church yesterday afternoon.

GUNMEN SENTENCED

Must Die in Electric Chair During the Week of January 6th

New York, Nov. 26.—"Gyp the Blood," "Whitey" Lewis, "Lefty Louie" and "Dago Frank," the gunmen convicted of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, were sentenced by Justice Goff today to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing during the week of January 6th.

Each of the prisoners was sentenced separately and in each case Charles F. Wahle, their counsel, moved that the verdict be set aside and the judgment be arrested. Each motion Justice Goff successively denied. One of the grounds for Mr. Wahle's motion was that the verdict was the result of "passion, prejudice and other influences."

None of the condemned men gave any visible signs of his feelings. Accompanied by Sheriff Harburger and 12 deputies the four were taken to the Grand Central station, where they boarded a train for Sing Sing. There, with Charles Becker, former lieutenant of police, condemned as instigator of the Rosenthal murder, they will await execution.

Ossining, N. Y., Nov. 26.—The four New York gunmen convicted of killing Herman Rosenthal reached here this afternoon and were lodged in the death house at Sing Sing in cells near the one occupied by Police Lieutenant Charles Becker.

The four men filled the last vacant cells in the death house, where there are now 17 men awaiting electrocution.

FLEET IN THE ROADS

Two Divisions Return From Charleston—Future Movements

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 26.—Two divisions of the Atlantic fleet arrived in Hampton Roads today from Charleston, S. C. The vessels were the battleships Utah, flagship of Rear Admiral Osterhaus, the commander-in-chief; North Dakota, Florida, Rhode Island, Idaho, Illinois, Georgia, Ohio and the Virginia. The Delaware and the Arkansas, also a part of the fleet, had previously arrived.

The battleships Utah and Florida are scheduled to go to New York, but the movements of the other vessels belonging to the fleet are uncertain.

Announcement was made today that the new battleship Arkansas, following the testing of her guns on the Southern drill grounds, would proceed to New York to receive a handsome silver service to be presented to the ship there by the State of Arkansas December 23rd.

MORE WITNESSES EXAMINED

Coroner's Jury Has Practically Completed Its Work In Connection With Investigation of Recent Mysterious Murder

With a session last night lasting a little over an hour, at which a number of witnesses were examined, the coroner's jury, assembled a week ago to inquire into the circumstances of the death of an unknown negro found dead at Nobles' Neck, on Newbern branch of the A. C. L., last Tuesday morning, announced that it had practically completed its work and would return a verdict in a few days. Members of the jury are satisfied that they established the identity of the negro who was murdered as Richard Blount, known to be a gambler and a negro with plenty of money for his purposes.

Grace Cockroom, colored, whose name was brought into the matter at the hearing Monday night was a witness last night. She denied that she had ever seen Richard Blount and asserted that there had never been any gambling in her house. Julia Franks, colored, who is supposed to have been Blount's paramour, but who denied ever having seen the man, was a witness again last night. She had been in jail since Monday night, held as a witness. She stood by her original story. She was released after the examination last night. Harry Williams, colored, who was a witness Monday night and held in jail until last night as a witness because it was thought that he knew more of the affair than he would tell, was released last night without even being recalled as a witness, members of the jury feeling that it would be useless to examine him further. No other witnesses were examined and the jury then adjourned to make up its verdict later.

Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., assistant city attorney, who has ably aided Dr. Joseph Akerman, the coroner, and the jury in the investigation, was not able to be present last night on account of a slight indisposition. County Attorney Marsden Bellamy was present for a short time and advised the jury as to certain legal phases of the case.

There came near being another murder in East Wilmington yesterday, within a quarter of a mile of the place where Richard Blount lost his life. Dawson Jinright, alias Kelly, struck Walter King, colored, over the head with a bottle and inflicted a serious wound. King was taken to the James Walker Memorial Hospital and was said to be in a rather serious condition. Justice George Harriss issued a warrant for Jinright and the paper was served by one of the deputy sheriffs. Jinright was committed to jail.

PASSED AWAY IN WAYCROSS

Mrs. D. W. Mason, Formerly of Wilmington, Died Yesterday

Friends in this city were shocked and saddened yesterday morning to learn of the death of Mrs. D. W. Mason, formerly of this city, but for the past three years living in Waycross, Ga. She died very suddenly, but the telegrams received by relatives here did not give any details. The body will be brought to this city today at noon and the funeral will be held here at an hour to be announced later.

Born in Wilmington, Mrs. Mason lived here until three years ago when the family removed to Waycross, Ga. She was a member of Brooklyn Baptist church in this city and when she removed to Waycross had her membership transferred to the First Baptist church of that city.

Mrs. Mason is survived by her husband and six children, these being Mrs. T. W. Weaver, Mrs. I. E. Pinner, Mrs. H. K. Blatz, of Wilmington; Miss Vivian Mason, of Waycross; Mr. Harry W. Mason, of Wilmington, and Mr. H. E. Mason, of Atlanta. She is also survived by a brother, Mr. Cicero Lewis, and a half brother, Capt. O. P. Wilson, both of Pender county. The bereaved will have the tenderest sympathy of a great many friends.

Here For Short Visit

Mr. George A. Simpson, special representative of the Canton Culvert Company, of Canton, Ohio, is a visitor to the city. Mr. Simpson is making a trip of inspection of the metal products manufacturing plants in which the people he represents are interested, chief among them being the Carolina Metal Products Company, of this city. The Wilmington company was organized about a year ago by Mr. Simpson.

Death of Infant Daughter

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Motte will sympathize with them in the death of their infant daughter, which occurred at the family residence, No. 414 Castle street, yesterday morning. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock this morning from the residence, conducted by Rev. W. G. Hall, pastor of Southside Baptist church. Interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

HOW TO TREAT AILING CHILDREN

Growing children play hard and work hard at school, which with rapid growth uses up an enormous amount of energy and vitality that must be replaced.

When a child is tired all the time, no appetite, weak, delicate and sickly we guarantee Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, will build them up, create a hearty appetite, sound flesh and muscle tissue, pure healthy blood, and make them strong.

Mary Lang, of Altoona, Pa., writes: "Ever since childhood I have been weak and delicate and my blood has been thin and poor. Many different forms of treatment did me no good, but last Spring I took Vinol and now I am so much stronger and better that I want you to know it. I don't know when I have felt so well and vigorous as I have since taking Vinol."

If Vinol fails to do just what we say, we will give back your money. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

ATTEMPT TO BURN CHURCH

Frustrated by Plucky Woman at Kinston—Other News Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 26.—A negro janitor, going to his work in a hotel downtown, frustrated an audacious attempt to burn the new Christian Science church in East Kinston, at 4:20 A. M. The colored man, perceiving a light in the building, probably made by the firebug to aid him in seeing to make the elaborate preparations which he had made for the building's destruction, aroused Mrs. Geo. Smith, the first reader of the congregation, who resides at 200 East street, near the church. The negro accompanied Mrs. Smith to the main entrance of the church, but the light having disappeared, his superstition so affected him that he would not accompany her inside, and the reader started to return to her home for matches and a revolver. On the outside of the structure, standing in the shadow of the wall, she encountered a man, who was accosted by plucky Mrs. Smith with a request to know who he was. She was answered with, "Does it make any difference to you who it is?" and a second interrogation brought forth the same reply, whereupon Mrs. Smith went to her home to get a pistol and matches. Returning, she found that the intruder had gone. A search of the building revealed that an oil lamp used before the installation of electric lights had been emptied of its contents, and it was a towel, well saturated in the kerosene, which had made the light seen by the colored man. The stove in the reader's room had evidently been intended to hold combustibles, its top having been removed and the doors opened. Kerosene was strewn over the carpet about the rostrum in large quantities, and other means had been planned to make the attempt successful. No clue was had leading to the firebug's identity, although Mrs. Smith is positive that she could see the face of the man whom she accosted on the street sufficiently well to satisfy her that he was white. No reason can be assigned for the act, but the surmise is that some one averse to the cult's teachings designed the edifice's destruction in sheer wantonness. The new church of the Christian Scientists was completed this year, and is a small but elegant structure of brick, and architecturally attractive. Its initial cost was $6,000.

Mrs. Susan Taylor, relict of Joel Taylor, one of Greene county's best known and most loved women, died yesterday afternoon at 2:[illegible] at the home of her niece, Mrs. Annie Potter Cox. She was [illegible] years of age. The funeral took place at 1 o'clock today from the Snow Hill Methodist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. W. H. Moore.

O. Humbles, a young farmer of Pitt county, committed suicide at his home between Ayden and Ridge Springs, a family misunderstanding over which he had been brooding being the probable cause. Humbles' wife saw him take a gun out of the room in which she was sitting, but thought he was going to the woods to hunt. Instead, he went to another room and blew his brains out with the shotgun. He propped the weapon against his head and used a broom handle to spring the trigger. Humbles lived with his wife and his mother.

An assault with a deadly weapon upon Luther McNeill, colored, was made at [illegible] o'clock in the morning by Edgar Joyner, another negro, in the southern end of the city. McNeill, who had been active in informing the police about matters concerning the habits of the colored residents of the section, was cajoled into going with another negro to a place where Joyner waited in ambush. The secret intelligence man had both legs peppered with shot when Joyner fired at him with a shotgun. The assailant, who is of a bad character, fled, making good his escape.

PERISH IN FIRE

Mother Tries to Save Children and All Die—Fatally Burned

Newport, News, Va., Nov. 26.—In frantic efforts to save their children from perishing in an early morning blaze which destroyed their home in Warwick count, near here today, Mrs. John C. Layman was burned to death and Mrs. L. J. Schenk received burns which doctors say will prove fatal. Mrs. Layman's efforts were futile, her two little babies, aged one and two years, being burned to death, dying probably before she did, and one of Mrs. Schenk's little children being suffocated. Mrs. Schenk and the other child were saved from the flames by the husbands of the two women, who had rushed from the barn. The flames started from an overheated stove pipe and had gained great headway before being found as the mothers were in the kitchen and the fathers out feeding stock. The children were sleeping in rooms on the second floor. The quadruple funeral will be held at Warwick Court House tomorrow.

Garland, N. C., Nov. 26.—An oyster supper was given last Friday night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. Lewis Cromartie for the benefit of Hickory Grove school. A good crowd was in attendance and a neat sum was realized. During the evening a contest to decide the most popular young lady resulted in the choice of Miss Mary Sloan, who was awarded the prize, a marble cake. Another contest to award the laziest man a cake of soap afforded much merriment. One of the industrious citizens of the community received the prize. The evening proved not only a success financially, but socially as well.

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED HERE YESTERDAY.

Many friends will learn with interest of the marriage of Miss Lula W. Morrill, the atractive daughter of Mrs. Carolina Morrill, and Mr. Harold W. Wells, which was celebrated at the home of the bride, No. 210 North Sixth street, at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The cermony was performed by Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster, pastor of the First Baptist church. There were present only members of the family and a few intimate friends of the couple. Mr. Wells is connected with the Southern National Bank and is a very popular young business man, while his bride is a most charming young lady, with a wide circle of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Wells left on an afternoon train for Savannah, Ga., and probably one or two other points. Upon their return early next week they will be at home at No. 210 North Sixth street.

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING DAY GOLF TOURNAMENT.

Members of Cape Fear Country Club are looking forward with much interest to the golfing events to be held on the links of the club tomorrow. The annual Thanksgiving golf tournaments will be held. In the morning there will be an 18-hole match for men and in the afternoon there will be a nine-hole mixed foursome match. Silver cups are offered by the club as prizes. Both are handicap tournaments and it is necessary that all entries be made before Thanksgiving Day, so that the handicap can be given before the play. Prizes will be given to runner-up in each event as well as to the winner. The Thanksgiving Day tournaments are the biggest events of the year in local golfing circles and there will doubtless be a large number on the links. Luncheon and an oyster roast will be served at the club house at noon.

QUIET AFTERNOON WEDDING OF POPULAR YOUNG PEOPLE.

A quiet but nevertheless a pretty and impressive marriage ceremony was solemnized at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. E. Cavenaugh, No. 416 Grace street, when Mr. Henry Platt Moore led to the altar Miss Nora Anderson, of Watha, N. C., and they were made man and wife in an impressive service by the Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. There were present only a few friends of the young people and they extended to the young couple their happiest felicitations. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will make their home in Wilmington where the groom is employed by the Atlantic Coast Line and where he has a host of friends who will congratulate him upon his good fortune of yesterday and wish both him and his charming bride a long and happy wedded life.

JOLLY PARTY FROM SOUTHPORT HERE YESTERDAY.

A jolly party came up from Southport yesterday morning on the steamer Nellie Dye, in charge of Capt. Bussells, who gave the trip as a compliment to Miss Louise Guy, of Norfolk, Va., who has been visiting Miss Lottie Bussells at Southport, for several weeks. Miss Guy came up to catch the train home and quite a party accompanied her on the steamer to bid her adieux.

In the party were Miss Guy, Miss Bussells, Miss Blanche Newton, Miss Edith Robbins, Miss Kate A. Griswold, of the Southport News, and Messrs. Warren Hood, Bonner Bussells and Capt. Chapman Manson. The party left Southport at 5 A. M., and on the way up a delightful breakfast was served on board. After a jolly and exceedingly enjoyable trip up the bay the party arrived here at 8:45 A. M. Miss Guy left for Norfolk, and her Southport friends returned home in the afternoon.

Miss Guy is a charming and accomplished young lady and won great popularity at Southport during her visit. Her host of friends deeply regretted her departure, but they entertain a strong hope that she will soon return for a longer stay.

BAZAAR FRIDAY EVENING FOR BALKAN WAR SUFFERERS

As before mentoned, the bazaar for the benefit of the Greek wounded will be held Friday of this week from 4 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon and from 8 to 10 o'clock in the evening at the residence of Mrs. Demetre Vafiadi, No. 5 North Ninth street.

It is earnestly hoped that the Wilmington public will sympathize with this worthy effort to help the sick and wounded Greek soldiers.

Mr. Vafiadi, the Greek vice consul, will send the money raised at this bazaar direct to the Crown Princess Sophie. When war was declared, the Queen of Greece was visiting in Russia and so the Crown Princess took the lead in the organization of relief work for the Greek soldiers. She has given generously to the cause and is untiring in her efforts to aid the wounded.

In this Balkan war the Greeks have shown great bravery and self-sacrifice and citizens of the American Nation cannot fail to admire the splendid patriotism and courage shown by the Greeks. The bazaar is given under the patronage of Mrs. Vafiadi, assisted by Mrs. Hugh MacRae, Mrs. Wm. Latimer, Mrs. Allan Nichols, Miss Elise Kidder and Miss Lucile Murchison.

MISS FANNIE HOLTON BRIDE OF MR. JACOB W. RUSS.

Of interest to a wide circle of friends and acquaintances of the bride and groom in Wilmington and elsewhere was the marriage at 6 o'clock yesterday evening, in Southside Baptist church, of Miss Fannie VanAmringe Holton, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Holton, and Mr. Jacob Winfield Russ, a well known and clever young Wilmingtonian, the church having been beautifully decorated and thronged with friends and admirers of the young people to the marriage vow.

The wedding marches were skilfully rendered by Mrs. W. T. Mercer, the bridal chorus from Lohengrin having been used as a processional, while "Traumerei" was softly played as the young people knelt at the altar and the impressive words that made them man and wife were spoken by the pastor of the church, the Rev. W. G. Hall. The bride was attended as maid of honor by her sister, Miss Mollie Holton, and the groom by his brother, Mr. E. E. Russ, as best man. The bride's other attendants were Miss Lillian Hewlett and Miss Mae Landen, bridesmaids, while the groomsmen were Mr. Charlie Holton, a brother of the bride, and Mr. Bruce Cameron. Little Miss Elise Holton, a sister of the bride, and little Miss Violet Potter, a niece of the groom, made most charming flower girls. The marriage scene was a most beautiful one indeed and when the vows had been taken the party left the church to the gladsome strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride was beautiful in a traveling suit of blue while the bridesmaids were attractive in white over pink chiffon and carrying lovely bouquets of white carnations, which were also the flowers of the bride. The little flower girls were daintily dressed in white and lent a charming presence to the marriage scene.

A brief reception at the home of the bride's parents gave opportunity for a large number of friends of the young people to witness the silent evidences of their popularity as manifested in numerous presents. After the reception, the bride and groom left on the northbound A. C. L. train for a wedding trip which will include Washington, Baltimore and New York. They will return in about ten days and will be at home after December 10th, at No. 306 Meares street.

Among yesterday's guests at The Orton were W. H. Jackson, Winston-Salem; H. M. Wade, J. H. Ham, Charlotte; St. Julian L. Springs, Lake Waccamaw; Howard C. Curtis, Southport; Chas. Hartsook, Greensboro; Mrs. Julien R. Hawes, Miss Maggie Hawes, Atkinson; J. M. Dalton, Winston-Salem; V. H. McKnight, Rocky Mount; F. W. Hargett, Jacksonville; L. C. Adams, Fayetteville; W. C. Manson, Southport; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Corbett, Ivanhoe; W. R. Corwith, Rocky Mount; Perry Estes, A. P. Tauant, Douglas B. Wesson, J. H. Wesson, Pinehurst; E. J. Hill, Warsaw.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. Council Dawson, of Jacksonville, N. C., was a business visitor to the city yesterday.

—Among the arrivals at The Southern yesterday were R. L. Patterson, Rocky Mount; J. A. Rowe, Burgaw; James A. Barnes, Fayetteville; Norwood Cox, Jacksonville, N. C.; C. L. Cotton, Charleston; E. T. Hall, Vista; Frank T. Essex, Washington, D. C.; A. L. Vann, Aberdeen; G. C. Edge, Galveston, Texas.

WANTS HIS CHILDREN.

B. R. Tillman, Jr., Brings Habeas Corpus Proceedings for Possession.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 26.—Habeas corpus proceedings brought by B. R. Tillman, Jr., son of United States Senator Tillman, against his former wife to secure possession of their two children, aged eight and six, were begun in the State Supreme Court here today. Original proceedings were filed in January, 1910, at which time young Tillman had executed a deed, without the consent of his wife, transferring the custody of the children during their minority to his parents. At this time the Supreme Court gave the custody of the two little girls to their mother.

Mrs. Tillman has since secured a divorce and is living in Cincinnati. She resumed her maiden name and is responding to the petition of the father in the name of Mrs. Mary Dugas.

Denial by Mrs. Lucy Dugas, of Cincinnati, formerly the wife of Benjamin R. Tillman, Jr., son of U. S. Senator B. R. Tillman, that she had taught their two small daughters to not regard their father or Senator Tillman affectionately, was made here today in the State Supreme Court in habeas corpus proceedings instituted by the father in an effort to gain possession of the children. Proceedings in the case originally started in January, 1910, when the father transferred the children to the care of Senator and Mrs. Tillman during their minority. The State Supreme Court did not approve the action since the mother was not consulted and gave the custody of the children to her.

The father has since started a legal struggle to obtain the children, alleging that he had not had an opportunity to visit the children under proper circumstances and that his former wife was planning re-marriage. Mrs. Dugas, who obtained the restoration of her maiden name when she secured a divorce, denied both charges in an answer today and also the allegation that she had taught the children to hate their father and Senator Tillman.

The two small daughters, 6 and 8 years of age, respectively, sat by their mother's side at the hearing today. Many women were in the audience.

The hearing was adjourned until Monday to allow the husband to make answer to the reply of his former wife.

HELD ON $10,000 BAIL.

Mrs. Hudson Arraigned for Alleged Violation of White Slave Law.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 26.—Mrs. Emma Pauline Hudson, manager of the Metropolitan Musical Comedy Company, was ordered held for the Federal grand jury on $10,000 bond when arraigned before United States Commissioner Colquitt this afternoon for alleged violation of the "white slave law" in connection with charges made by Miss Genevieve Goodwin, of Cincinnati, Ohio. Charges by Robert Grier, stage manager, and the four other members of the company, were dismissed for lack of evidence.

Miss Goodwin, a former trained nurse in Cincinnati, tearfully related her story on the witness stand. After telling how she succumbed to the lure of the stage and was "booked" to the Atlanta company, she declared: "They told me that I was to select one of the boys of the company and live with him as man and wife."

Miss Goodwin, according to her story, then tried in vain to get the company to refund her transportation to Cincinnati. When she asked Mrs. Hudson what she expected the girl to do, "Do as we do, or pawn your watch," the girl said the woman replied.

CZAREVITCH RECOVERING

Heir Apparent to Russian Throne Is Getting On Nicely

Washington, Nov. 26.—The Russian embassy made public today a cablegram announcing that the young Czarevitch, heir apparent to the Russian throne, is recovering from the accident sustained recently. Officials of the ambassy declared the message should set at rest erroneous reports regarding the condition of the young Prince. There is no foundation, it was stated, for the reports that he is suffering from a permanent injury or an incurable illness.

Motherhood

The highest point of woman's happiness is reached only through motherhood, in the clasping of her child within her arms. Yet the mother-to-be is often fearful of nature's ordeal and shrinks from the suffering incident to its consummation. But for nature's ills and discomforts nature provides remedies, and in Mother's Friend is to be found a medicine of great value to every expectant mother. It is an emulsion for external application, composed of ingredients which act with beneficial and soothing effect on those portions of the system involved. It is intended to prepare the system for the crisis, and thus relieve, in great part, the suffering through which the mother usually passes. The regular use of Mother's Friend will repay any mother in the comfort it affords before, and the helpful restoration to health and strength it brings about after baby comes. Mother's Friend is for sale at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

—Wilmer Reu, a white bay, was slightly bruised yesterday morning when the bicycle he was riding collided with the street car at the bridge over the railroad tracks on North Fourth street. The accident is said to have resulted from the dense clouds of smoke from a locomotive which filled the bridge. Motorman J. W. LeClair and Conductor Wooten were in charge of the car.

—An automobile said to have been driven by Mr. E. D. Penny and a bicycle ridden by Douglas Robinson, a colored boy about 14 years old, collided at Tenth and Market streets yesterday morning. The boy was considerably bruised and his back was wrenched, but his injuries are not considered serious. The boy was given surgical attention by Dr. Joseph Akerman and taken to his home at No. 808 Dawson street.

NO VERDICT IN GIBSON CASE.

Jury Stood Nine for Acquittal and Three for Conviction.

Goshen, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Burton W. Gibson, the New York lawyer, concerning whose guilt or innocence of the charge of murdering his client, Mrs. Rosa Menschik Szabo, the jury was unable to find a verdict today, apparently was stunned tonight by the disagreement of the jury. He said he had firmly expected an acquittal. The vote on the final ballot taken by the jury stood nine for acquittal and three for conviction. The jury announced at 11:20 o'clock this morning its inability to reach a decision, and was discharged.

"I am bitterly disappointed," Gibson said tonight. "Now nothing can be done until March. I have been wronged, for it is unjust for an innocent man to remain under a cloud of this sort."

"I know he is innocent, and I am going to stand by him," said Mrs. Gibson, after seeing her husband tonight.

Gibson will remain in jail here, in all probability until he is given a second trial. His lawyers claim to have an offer by the State to drop the murder case if Gibson will plead guilty to an indictment charging larceny found in New York county. This the State denies.

Washington, Nov. 26.—With a majority of its 65,800 passengers gobbling their despairing wail, a special train of 42 cars raced through Washington early today, bound for New York with turkeys from Eastern Tennessee, destined to grace many a Gotham table. There were 34 cars filled with live turkeys, each car in charge of a special man who looked after the comforts of the fowls, and eight refrigerator cars containing birds killed and prepared for market. The "turkey special" is said to be the biggest single shipment of turkeys made in many years, if ever.

SHARP ADVANCE IN COTTON WHEAT MARKET SOME LOWER STOCK QUOTATIONS STEADIER

Bullish Crop and Trade Advices Caused Prices to Make New High Records for the Season—Close Firm at Gain.

New York, Nov. 26.—Bullish crop and trade advices caused another sharp advance in the cotton market today, and after an early decline prices made new high records for the season, with the close firm, at a net gain of from 11 to 23 points.

The opening was steady, at unchanged prices to a decline of 3 points, and the market sold 8 to 11 points net lower right after the call, under overnight selling orders. Relatively easy Liverpool cables and continued nervousness over the European political situation, combined with the approaching holiday season, encouraged considerable local pressure, while foreign houses and the South were active sellers. The offerings, however, were readily absorbed, with most of the buying attributed to strong trade interests and the market firmed up on this support, which was accompanied by very bullish crop estimates. As prices worked higher, stop orders were uncovered, suggesting uneasiness on the part of recent sellers. This gave the market rather an excited tone, and when the buying movement became general, prices soon worked into new high ground for the movement, with January contracts selling at 12.68 and March at 12.73, or 26 to 28 points net higher. The close was 4 or 5 points off from the best, under realizing. Today's advices from the Balkans were considered more favorable and an optimistic view of the foreign political situation was encouraged by a decline in grain and the firmer tone of stocks. The feature of the news most emphasized, however, appeared to be the small local supply, reports of activity on the part of domestic mills and claims that Eastern spinners were but poorly supplied with raw material.

Spot closed steady. Middling uplands, 13.00; do. gulf, 13.25. Sales, 3,400 bales.

Futures closed firm.

Erratic Course of Money Market Reflected in Stock Operations—Call Money Went to 12 Per Cent.—Lower at Close.

New York, Nov. 26.—The erratic course of the money market today was reflected in operations in stocks, although, quotations were steadier than yesterday. Call money opening at 9 per cent., quickly advanced to 12 per cent., and renewals were made at 11 per cent., as compared with 6 per cent. yesterday. After touching the high point, the rate declined steadily, until before the close money was offered at 3 per cent. There was some further calling in of loans, owing to the demand of interior banks, and it was suggested also that "window dressing" for the expected call from the comptroller for a statement of the condition of National banks played a part in the action of the money market. The more urgent demands for funds were quickly satisfied, however, and during the last part of the day call loans were in small request. Time rates hardened in sympathy with the movement of call money.

The stock market was relieved today of pressure from abroad. On more reassuring news of the European political situation the foreign markets improved and there was a sympathetic advance here at the opening.

Interest was centered largely on the money market. With the easing of money the market steadied and toward the close prices rose to the highest point of the day. A number of the standard issues made net gains of a point or more.

The influence of high rates for money was reflected in the foreign exchange market, and exchange rates dropped below the recent low figure to the bottom quotations for about two years.

Atchison's October statement contributed to the list of favorable railroad returns. Gross earnings increased $1,417,000, and the net $378,000.

Bonds were under pressure today, with some large blocks of semi-speculative issues changing hands.

Total sales, par value, $2,225,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales, 257,700 shares.

STILL THEY COME

50 head Good Horses and Mules by express to be put up and sold for the High Dollar, Tuesday, November 26th. Sale commences 11 A. M.. We also have 25 big acclimated draft horses ready to go to work. Will be offered for sale, and we especially invite the business men of the city to come out and see for themselves because the horses are sold at auction is no indication they are common horses. We hitch every horse and if he is not as represented we don't want a dollar of your money, and you can save from $25.00 to $50.00. So you see that we sell 50 in one day, we can afford to sell at a smaller profit. Come Monday or Tuesday A. M. Pick out and work your horse before the sale starts.

Mr. Jewell, of Lexington, Ky., will be here to represent every one of them.

Point on Monday morning. Bishop Denny is recognized as one of the ablest presiding officers, teachers and scholars of the church. He was a member of the Baltimore conference during all of his ministry before he was elected Bishop, but much of his time has been devoted to educational work. He was called from the pastorate to take the position of chaplain to the University of Virginia. He went from there to Vanderbilt University, where he was elected to the chair of mental and moral science and that position he held for 20 years and until elected Bishop.

It was in 1837 that the North Carolina Conference was set off from the Virginia Conference and in 1850 and again in 1870 North Carolina territory in the South Carolina Conference was transferred to this conference. In 1890 North Carolina territory in the Holston conference and in the Virginia conference, except that beyond the Chowan river, was transferred to the North Carolina Conference and the conference was divided into the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina conferences. The remainder of the North Carolina conference in 1894 and the whole of the State of North Carolina is now embraced in these two conferences.

The session of the conference tomorrow morning will open with the observance of the sacrament of the Lord's supper, in keeping with a custom of long standing in the conference. The business of the conference will be taken up immediately after the sacramental service. The secretary of the last conference will call the roll of the body, after which the secretary for this session and his assistants will be elected. The presiding elders who constitute the nominating committee for the standing committees will then submit the nominations for these committees and they will be confirmed by the conference. The first question that will be called will be Question 22, "Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration," This will be called first with reference to presiding elders and preachers who sustain the supernumerary relation and the superannuate relation and during the session the same question will be called with reference to every member of the conference. No member of any conference of this church can receive an appointment until the affirmative answer has been given and he has passed the examination of character.

The latest figures available show that in the North Carolina Conference there are 90 local preachers, 191 traveling preachers and a total church membership og 801,108. Last year 4,253 members were added to the church on profession of faith and 2,886 were added by certificate; 774 infants and 2,277 adults were baptized. The number of churches in this conference is 726 and the value of the same is $2,000,183. The number of parsonages is 169 and the value $350,760. The number of district parsonages is nine and the value $44,500.

VICTORY FOR TRAINMEN

Arbitration Board Reinstates Discharged Conductor and Flagman

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 26.—Conductors and trainmen of the Georgia Railroad, who recently went on strike because of the discharging of two employes by the system, today won what they consider a decisive victory when the arbitration board agreed upon by the railroad and the employes to settle the dispute, ordered the railroad to reinstate the discharged men.

The employes discharged were Conductor J. T. Paschal and Flagman A. M. Morgan. Paschal was discharged because he allowed his engineer to work continuously more than 16 hours in violation of the Federal laws, according to the railroad officials. Morgan was discharged as the result of a controversy with the railroad over an expense account, the system's officers asserted. Both employes asserted the real reason for their discharge was that they were prominent in the trainmens' and conductors' unions.

C. A. Wickersham, member of the arbitration board as the representative of the railroad, dissented from the re-instatement of Conductor Paschal. The opinion in the case of Flagman Morgan was unanimous, it being held that he should have been suspended 10 days as a disciplinary measure, but not discharged. The conductor will receive full pay from the time he was discharged. The flagman will be given pay for all the time except the suggested 10 day's suspension.

Judge William L. Chambers, of Washington, read the decision. He expressed the hope that closer relations would result between the railroad and the employes. Fred A. Burgess, representing the trainmen was the third member of the arbitration board.

S. A. L. OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

Harahan Working Out Plans for Extensive Improvements.

Baltimore, Nov. 26.—President W. J. Harahan and the other officers of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, were re-elected by the board of directors of that company here today. S. Davies Warfield, was elected chairman of the board, a newly created position, and also chairman of the executive and finance committees.

The vacancy caused by the resignation of Vice President and General Manager Charles H. Hicks was not filled. Officers of the road formerly reporting to Mr. Hicks will now report to President Harahan direct.

It is understood he is working out a plan for extensive improvements which will involve an expenditure of at least $5,000,000.

DOUBLE SHOOTING AFFAIR.

Fatal Fight Between Negroes in Brunswick County—One May Die.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, N. C., Nov. 26.—Sunday afternoon, near the Town Creek Lumber Company's camp at Winnabow, this county, a double shooting affair took place, which is likely to result in the death of both participants, two negro men who were employed by the lumber company. The shooting grew out of a dispute between Charlie Johnson and John Baldwin, the latter accusing Johnson of robbing him, as they met in the road, Johnson having been discharged and presumed to be leaving.

Baldwin, accompanied by friends, confronted Johnson, thrusting a pistol in his face demanding the return of the money he alleged had been stolen. Johnson jumped back, firing his pistol, then turned and ran. Baldwin fell, seriously wounded and was reported taken to Wilmington for treatment. Baldwin's friends chased Johnson, catching him, stabbing and beating him over the head. Then, carrying him, bloody and torn, before the Justice of the Peace, who just had time to hear the case and commit him to jail before the evening train arrived for Southport, where he was taken Sunday night.

Johnson now lies on his bed in a cell here in the county jail with a bad case of blood poison pneumonia, caused by a knife stab in the back which penetrated his lungs, which he received as he ran after shooting Baldwin. He is also severely bruised up about the head from being hit at the same time he was run down by the crowd after he had shot Baldwin.

Johnson told your correspondent this morning as he lay in bed bandaged up and breathing with difficulty, the following story in substance:

He had been working as fireman in the woods of the lumber camp near Winnabow, and was discharged Saturday. Sunday he was preparing to leave when John Baldwin came up to him on the road with a crowd, put a gun in his face and demanded the money which Baldwin claimed he had stolen from him. Johnson jumped back, drew his gun and fired, then turned and ran, with Baldwin's friends in jursuit. He was soon overtaken, cut and beaten, and carried by the same crowd before Mr. Jackson Johnson, J. P.

According to the finding of the justice, Johnson was held in $200 bond. Johnson claims to have come from Magnolia.

PLEADS SELF DEFENSE

J. B. Snead Takes Stand In His Own Defense

Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 26.—John Beall Snead, testifying in his own behalf today, swore that when he shot and killed A. G. Boyce, Sr., in the lobby of a local hotel last January, he thought Boyce was about to attack him. Boyce, he said, had applied an epithet as he passed him.

"At the moment all that bad happened came to me," Sneed testified, "I knew he had been helping his son to take my wife away from me, to keep her away, and to take my children from me and I knew of his slanderous statements. I believed then that he would attack me."

Sneed was on the stand the greater part of the day. He related in chronological order incidents which preceded the killing of the aged ranchman, the elopement of Mrs. Sneed and Albert Boyce, Jr., of his search for them, and of their detention in Canada and his reconciliation with his wife. He alleged that Boyce and his son continued in their efforts to cause another separation and described his state of mind as a result of it all.

Attorneys for the defense endeavored to have admitted evidence relative to telephone communications which passed between members of the Boyce family after the younger Boyce and Mrs. Sneed had eloped and a letter written by Henry Boyce to Mrs. Sneed, all of which Presiding Judge Swayne ruled as non-competent. Announcement was also made that the defense would ask tomorrow for a continuance of the trial to the next term of the regular court because of the absence of several witnesses. Judge Swayne, however, advised the attorneys informally "not to bank too much" on the continuance.

W. A. Weaver, who was arrested on a charge of perjury after he had testified as a witness for the defense yesterday, will be recalled to the stand tomorrow, and lawyers for Sneed declare, will make "interesting disclosures."

REGULATIONS APPROVED.

Governing the 50,222 Postmasters Under the Civil Service.

Washington, Nov. 26.—President Taft today approved regulations governing the 50,222 fourth class postmasters throughout the country who have been placed under the classified civil service by executive order. Alaska, Guam, Hawaii, Samoa and Porto Rico are exempted from the order.

The competition among applicants for fourth class offices where the annual compensation is $500 or more, is to be the same as elsewhere in the classified service. Where the compensation is less than $500 a year, a post-office inspector shall visit the locality and select from among the applicants a suitable man.

None of the fourth class postmasters will be allowed to take active part in political affairs. Those receiving less than $500 a year are not eligible for transfer; those getting that amount or more may be transferred to the rural mail carrier service after having passed the required examination.

Of the fourth class postmasters 42,254 receive under $500 annual salary, while 7,768 get more than that amount.

PORTO RICO'S NEW WONDER.

From far away Porto Rico come reports of a wonderful new discovery that is believed will vastly benefit the people. Ramon T. Marchan, of Barceloneta, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is doing splendid work here. It cured me about five times of terrible coughs and colds, also my brother of a severe cold in his chest and more than 20 others, who used it on my advice. We hope this great medicine will yet be sold in every drug store in Porto Rico." For throat and lung troubles it has no equal. A trial will convince you of its merit. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

WILL KEEP $25,000,000.

Carnegie Will Leave Balance of Fortune to Carnegie Corporation.

New York, Nov. 26.—Andrew Carnegie in a statement tonight announced all but $25,000,000 of his fortune, which will be disposed of under his will, will be left to the Carnegie Corporation of New York, which has been made his residuary legatee, and which will carry on his educational and charitable work. Mr. Carnegie's statement likewise explains his reasons for planning to pension ex-Presidents of the United States as he provided for recently through the Carnegie Corporation. In making his announcement telling how he had gone about putting his "gospel of wealth" into practice, Mr. Carnegie said: "I resolved to fulfill the requirements of the 'gospel of wealth' by transferring funds and have done so except that I have found it desirable to retain for a while personal distribution of my United States Military Telegraph Corps pensions and Pennsylvania Railroad pensions to Pittsburg division men and their widows, because my old boys would dislike the change and so no doubt would others on my pension list. To meet these payments and others under my will, 25 millions of bonds upon which the New York State tax has been paid, have been reserved. But the New York Corporation has been made my residuary legatee and all surplus left after meeting the provisions of my will goes to it.

"I am happy in getting all this off my mind. It is gruesome business, but I find that this earth is rapidly becoming more and more heavenly, so many good men and women I know labor for others. Surely Luther, Franklin and their followers were right who held that 'Service to man is the highest worship of God'."

In explaining his pension plan Mr. Carnegie cited the case of three former President as affording justification for the project, the announcement of which he said, was "making the desired impression."

His trustees and himself were all hoping, he said, that Congress would meet the situation "by proper action."

"Not one of us but will rejoice should this be the result," he said. "We were careful to provide that only in case Congress failed to provide pensions to ex-President, the corporation would stand ready to do so. It is properly the province of the nation to act. We all feel that."

Mr. Carnegie referred to a recently published letter which dealt with the circumstanes of Grover Cleveland after his retirement from the Presidency.

"I know about Mr. Cleveland," said Mr. Carnegie in his statement. "He told me of an offer he had to serve as a diretor in an important institution which would give him a salary. Finding that other directors had not salaries he declined the offer, saying his name was not for sale."

Mr. Carnegie's other references were to Presidents Lincoln and Grant, the last named having been pressed for funds, even while yet in the White House, the iron master said, while he quoted from a letter written by Mrs. Lincoln to show that President Lincoln's family was similarly embarrassed.

INDEPENCENT GREW RAPIDLY

A. F. Bayston Testifies As to Success Of Independent Harvester Co.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—A. H. Bayston, of the Independent Harvester Company of Plano, Ill., today in the government's suit to dissolve the International Harvester Company, testified to the rapid growth of the independent concern, which now has 23,000 stockholders.

Mr. Bayston said that for a three-year period the independent Harvester Company had doubled its business, annually selling an output that totalled nearly three quarters of a million dollars a year.

The Independent Harvester Company, he said, had been created along co-operative lines to a considerable extent. He said that the concern had an authorized capitalization of $16,000,000, of which about $5,000,000 has been paid in. Mr. Bayston was the principal witness at the afternoon session before Special Examiner Robert S. Taylor. Other witnesses were J. T. Smalley, vice president of the Smalley Manufacturing Company at Manitowoc, Wis., and J. E. White, of Rockford, Ill., sales manager of the Emerson-Brantingham Company. Both testified as to the output of their plants.

Mr. White also told of the various branches and branch houses of the Emerson Brantingham Company.

COMPRESSED COTTON

Steamships and Exchange Agree on Density of Export Bales

New Orleans, Nov. 26.—Semi-official information has been received by foreign freight and freight forwarding agents here that an agreement has been reached between the steamship companies and the New Orleans cotton exchange concerning the density of compressed cotton for foreign ports. The steamship companies, it is said, have agreed to a rebate of twenty-five per cent of the posted rate on bales having a density of 32 pounds to the cubic foot. At sixty cents per 100 pounds, the average rate to Liverpool and Manchester, the high density rate would be about 45 cents. The minimum density is put at 22 1-2 pounds to the cubic foot and bales falling below that standard will be penalized 45 cents per bale.

rare, old carolina wine

Scuppernong Wine is the rarest product of the vineyard. Made from a grape peculiar to this section, its delightfully exquisite flavor, its rich bouquet and its fragrant aroma, have given it a popularity over the entire country.

Scuppernong is the wine of the connoisseur, but it is light in alcohol and possesses wonderful medicinal properties.

Nothing will appeal to your afternoon visitors like Bear's Scuppernong Wine, daintily served with cake or wafers.

Scuppernong. Belle of Carolina.
